

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 17TH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR
BROWARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

ANTHONY COLLINS,

CASE NO. CACE25002370

Plaintiff,

v.

IMAGINE 360, LLC,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF’S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS SETTLEMENT AND APPLICATION FOR
ATTORNEYS’ FEES, COSTS, AND SERVICE AWARD

Plaintiff,¹ individually, and on behalf of the Settlement Class, and Class Counsel respectfully move this Court for an order granting Final Approval of the Parties’ Settlement Agreement, an attorneys’ fees and costs award to Class Counsel, and Service Award to the Class Representative. This Motion for Final Approval is made pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.220(e), and is based on the memorandum of law contained in this Motion, the Joint Declaration of Class Counsel (“Joint Decl.”), attached as Exhibit B, and the Declaration of Cameron R. Azari (“Admin. Decl.”), attached as Exhibit C.

The Court granted Preliminary Approval on March 20, 2025, which provides for substantial Settlement Class Member Benefits, including: (1) a non-reversionary $475,000.00 all cash Settlement Fund, from which Settlement Class Members will receive compensation for out-of-pocket losses or a flat cash payment; and (2) valuable non-monetary relief comprised of comprehensive cybersecurity improvements. The Settlement Fund will also be used to pay all ¹ All capitalized terms herein shall have the same meanings as those defined in Section II of the Settlement Agreement, attached as Exhibit A.

Settlement Administration Costs, any Court-awarded attorneys' fees and costs to Class Counsel, and any Court-awarded Service Award to the Class Representative. When the Court granted Preliminary Approval, it found the Settlement to be within the range of reasonableness for final approval and finding the class certification requirements were met.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel now move the Court for Final Approval and apply for attorneys' fees and costs to Class Counsel and for a Service Award for the Class Representative. The Settlement meets all the criteria for Final Approval. As of the filing of this motion, there are no objections, and no Settlement Class members have opted-out. This overwhelmingly positive response from the Settlement Class affirms the Court's initial conclusion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Parties' counsel fully evaluated the strengths, weaknesses, and equities of the Parties' respective positions and believe the proposed Settlement fairly resolves their respective differences. Joint Decl. ¶ 3. For all the reasons set forth herein, the Court should grant Final Approval of the Settlement and the Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award.

I. INTRODUCTION AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Defendant provides self-funded health insurance plan services to employers within a variety of industries. As part of its business, Defendant receives and maintains personal sensitive information of its customers' employees who then obtain health insurance-related services through Defendant. In doing so, Defendant promises to safeguard their information. Plaintiff alleges he is an employee who provided, directly or indirectly, Defendant with his Private Information so he could use Defendant's services. Plaintiff alleges his Private Information was exposed as a result of the Data Incident. Plaintiff alleges Defendant failed to use reasonable security procedures and practices appropriate to protect employees' Private Information. See Complaint, generally.

On February 19, 2025, Plaintiff filed his Complaint in this Action against Defendant, asserting several causes of action related to the Data Incident. Joint Decl. ¶ 4. The Parties, who had started settlement discussions before the Complaint was filed, used a mediator to help facilitate the negotiations. Id. ¶¶ 4-5. In advance of the mediation, Plaintiff consulted with their damage and liability experts, propounded informal discovery requests on Defendant to which Defendant responded by providing information related to, among other things, the nature and cause of the Data Incident, the number and geographic location of victims impacted by the Data Incident, and the specific type of information breached. Id. ¶ 7.

Ultimately, the Parties reached an agreement on the material terms of this Settlement on a classwide basis which were then memorialized in the Settlement Agreement. Id. ¶ 6.

II. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT

A. Settlement Class - Plaintiff seeks Final Approval of the Settlement on behalf of the following Settlement Class:

All living individuals residing in the United States who were sent a notice of the Data Incident indicating their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

Agreement ¶ 48. Excluded from the Settlement Class are: (a) all persons who are directors, officers, and agents of Defendant, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliated companies; (b) governmental entities; and (c) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge's immediate family, and Court staff. Id.

B. Settlement Class Member Benefits – The Settlement provides for a non-reversionary all cash $475,000.00 Settlement Fund for the Settlement Class. Id. ¶ 52. The Settlement Fund will be used to pay all Settlement Class Members Benefits, all Settlement Administration Costs, any Court-awarded Service Award of up to $2,000.00 to the Class

Representative, and any Court-Awarded attorneys' fees and costs. Id. ¶¶ 56, 89. The Settlement provides the following monetary benefits for Settlement Class Members:

- Cash Payments – Settlement Class Members must elect either Cash Payment A - Documented Losses or Cash Payment B – Flat Cash. Id. ¶ 59. Settlement Class Members who elect Cash Payment A may receive compensation for reimbursement of documented out of pocket expenses related to the Data Incident of up to $5,000.00 each. Id. ¶ 59.a. Alternatively, Settlement Class Members who elect Cash Payment B will receive a flat payment in an estimated amount of $75.00. Id. ¶ 59.b.

- Credit Monitoring - In addition to a Cash Payment, Settlement Class Members may also make a Claim for three years of CyEx's Identity Defense Complete, which has a value of several hundreds of dollars per year per Settlement Class Member. Id. ¶ 59.c.

- Injunctive Relief - In addition to the Cash Payments and Credit Monitoring outlined above, Defendant has also agreed to make data security enhancements to protect Settlement Class members' and other individuals' Private Information. Id. ¶ 59.d. All modifications are at Defendant's expense and will not come out of the Settlement Fund. Id.; Joint Decl. ¶ 18.

C. Release of Claims – In exchange for the Settlement Class Member Benefits, Plaintiff and Settlement Class Members agree to release Defendant from any claims related to the Data Incident. Agreement ¶ 93. The Releases are narrowly tailored to the claims made in the Action. Id. ¶¶ 42, 93. Plaintiff and Settlement Class Members who do not timely and validly opt-out of the Settlement Class will be bound by the terms of the Settlement, including the Releases that discharge the Released Claims against the Released Parties. Id. ¶ 68.

D. Notice Program

Following Preliminary Approval, the Settlement Administrator, Epiq, effectuated the Notice Program in accordance with the Parties' Agreement and the Court's Preliminary Approval Order. Admin. Decl. ¶ 21. The Notice Program consisted of direct Postcard Notice to those Settlement Class Members for which physical addresses could be identified. Agreement ¶ 65.

On March 27, 2025, Epiq received a list from Defendant containing records for 106,087 Settlement Class Members. Id. ¶ 22. After deduplicating the records, Epiq had information for 104,018 Settlement Class Members. Id. Additionally, Epiq undertook the tasks of comparing the address data against the United States Postal Service National Change of Address database and updating the data to a Settlement-specific database with the changes received from NCOA. Admin. Decl. ¶ 24. The addresses were also certified via the Coding Accuracy Support System to ensure the quality of the zip code and verified through Delivery Point Validation to verify the accuracy of the addresses. Id.

On April 18, 2025, Epiq sent Postcard Notice to 103,989 Settlement Class Members for whom a complete valid mailing address was available. Id. ¶ 23. After receiving returned Postcard Notices with available forwarding addresses, as of June 23, 2025, Epiq caused 10,355 Postcard Notices to be remailed. Id. ¶ 25. Moreover, a Long Form Notice and/or Claim Form were mailed to all persons who requested one via the toll-free telephone number or other means. Id. ¶ 26. As of June 23, 2025, Epiq mailed 105 Long Form Notices and 43 Claim Forms as a result of such requests. Id.

Also following Preliminary Approval, Epiq established the Settlement Website, a toll-free telephone number, and postal address for Settlement Class Member inquiries. Admin Decl. ¶¶ 28-30. The Settlement Website was established on April 18, 2025, and contains key documents, including the Settlement Agreement, Long Form Notice, Preliminary Approval Order, Claim Form where Settlement Class Members can easily submit Claims. Id. ¶ 28. This Motion for Final Approval will be posted after its filed. The toll-free Settlement telephone line went live on April 18, 2025. Id. ¶ 29. As of June 23, 2025, there have been over 500 calls seeking more information about the Settlement. Id. These additional forms of notice further buttressed the highly successful direct Notice Program.

Overall, the Notice Program was highly effective and satisfied the requirements of due process to the Settlement Class as is required by the Florida Constitution. The Postcard Notice alone achieved an estimated 95% reach of potential Settlement Class Members. Id. ¶ 27. The efforts undertaken in the Notice Program are consistent with best-practicable, Court-approved notice programs in similar matters. Further, this reach rate exceeds the Federal Judicial Center's guidelines concerning appropriate reach, which state that a notice plan that reaches a minimum of 70% of targeted class members is reasonable. Id. ¶ 41.

E. Claim Submission Process - To receive Settlement Class Member Benefits, Settlement Class Members are required to accurately and timely submit Claims through the Court-approved Claim Form by the Claim Form Deadline, which is July 31, 2025. Id. ¶ 33. Claim Forms may be submitted online through the Settlement Website or through U.S. Mail sent to the Settlement Administrator at the address designated on the Claim Form. Id. ¶ 32. As of June 23, 2025, there have been approximately 2,900 claims submitted online and 230 by mail. Id. ¶ 33. The Settlement Administrator will review all Claim Forms to determine their validity, eligibility, and the type and amount of Settlement Class Member Benefit to which the Settlement Class Member may be entitled. Agreement ¶ 75. The Settlement Administrator will provide Settlement Class Members who submitted Valid Claims with their Settlement Class Member Benefits no later than 30 days after the Effective Date. Agreement ¶ 83. Class Counsel will update the Court at the Final Approval Hearing with the total number of Claims filed.

Cash Payments will be made electronically by sending Settlement Class Members with Valid Claims an email to select from alternative forms of electronic payment or by paper check. Id. ¶ 84.

F. Opt-Outs and Objections - The deadline to opt-out or object is July 16, 2025. Admin. Decl. ¶ 31. As of June 23, 2025, no opt-outs or objections have been received. Id.

G. Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award – After the Parties agreed on all material terms of the Settlement, they discussed attorneys' fees, costs, and Service Award. Joint Decl. ¶ 10. The Parties agreed that Class Counsel would request up to 35% of the Settlement Fund for attorneys, fees, as well as reimbursement of litigation costs. Id.; Agreement ¶ 90. The Notices all advised the Settlement Class that Class Counsel would be seeking attorneys' fees in that amount, as well as reimbursement of costs. Agreement, Exhibits 1-3. Further, the Parties agreed Class Counsel would request Service Award for the Class Representative in an amount of up to $2,000. Joint Decl. ¶ 32; Agreement ¶ 89. Likewise, the Notices also advised the Settlement Class regarding the Service Award amounts. Agreement, Exhibits 1-3. As indicated above, there have been no objections by any of the Settlement Class Members to the amounts requested.

H. Disposition of Residual Funds – Subject to Court approval, any funds remaining in the Settlement Fund 240 days following the date Settlement Class Members are sent an email to select their form of payment, shall be distributed to Electronic Privacy Information Center (<https://epic.org/cy-pres/>), which is a mutually agreeable cy pres recipient.

III. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT

To finally approve the Settlement on a classwide basis, the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure require notice to the Settlement Class, a fairness hearing, and this Court’s final approval. “Settlement has special importance in class actions with their notable uncertainty, difficulties of proof, and length. Settlements of complex cases contribute greatly to the efficient utilization of scarce judicial resources and achieve the speedy resolution of justice[.]” Turner v. Gen. Elec. Co., No. 2:05-CV-186-FTM-99DNF, 2006 WL 2620275, at *2 (M.D. Fla. Sept. 13, 2006) (internal quotation omitted). “There is a strong judicial policy favoring the pretrial settlement of class actions.” Lee v. Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC, 2015 WL 5449813, at *4 (S.D. Fla. Sept. 14, 2015); see also In re U.S. Oil & Gas Litig., 967 2d 489, 493 (11th Cir. 1992) (“Public policy strongly favors the pretrial settlement of class action Actions”); Cotton v. Hinton, 559 F.2d 1326, 1331 (5th Cir. 1977) (“Particularly in class action suits, there is an overriding public interest in favor of settlement”).²

A. The Settlement is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate

The Court previously found the Settlement to be sufficiently fair, reasonable, and adequate to warrant providing Notice to the Settlement Class. Preliminary Approval Order ¶ 6. At the Final Approval Hearing, after Notice to the Settlement Class and time and opportunity for absent class members to object or otherwise be heard, the Court considers whether the Settlement “is fair, adequate, and reasonable and is not the product of collusion between the parties.” Bennett v. Behring Corp., 737 F.2d 982, 986 (11th Cir. 1984) (citation omitted). See also Nelson v. Wakulla Cnty., 985 So. 2d 564, 570 (Fla. 1st DCA 2008); Barnhill v. Florida Microsoft Anti-Trust Litig., 905 So. 2d 195, 199-200 (Fla. 3d DCA 2005); Altamonte Springs Imaging, L.C. v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 12 So. 3d 850, 854 (Fla. 3d DCA 2009). The court is “not called upon to determine whether the settlement reached by the parties is the best possible deal, nor whether class members will receive as much from a settlement as they might have recovered from victory at trial.” Roubert v. Capital One Fin. Corp., No. 8:21-cv-2852-TPB-TGW, 2023 WL 5916714, at *5 (M.D. Fla. Jul. 10, 2023) (quotation omitted).

The factors a trial court should consider when determining whether to approve a class action settlement include: (1) the likelihood of success at trial; (2) the range of possible recovery; (3) the point over or below the range of possible recovery at which a settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable; (4) the complexity, expense, and duration of the litigation; (5) the substance and amount of opposition to the settlement; and (6) the stage of the proceedings at which the settlement was achieved. Nelson, 985 So. 2d at 57; Silva v. U.S. Century Bank, 2014 Fla. Cir. LEXIS 48275 (Fla. 11th Jud. Cir. Nov. 10, 2014). The Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals has also identified factors used by Florida courts to evaluate settlements,³ which again favor the settlement here. See Leverso v. Southtrust Bank, 18 F.3d 1527, 1530 n.6 (11th Cir. 1994). Each of these factors favors granting Final Approval here.

1. The likelihood of success at trial

While Plaintiff and Class Counsel firmly believe Plaintiff’s claims would have resulted in class certification and favorable adjudication on the merits, Plaintiff faced significant risks should he have continued to litigate the Action,⁴ which include Defendant successfully: (i) moving for dismissal of Plaintiff’s claims; (ii) opposing class certification; (iii) appealing a class certification order; (iv) prevailing on a post-certification summary judgment motion; (v) prevailing at trial; or (vi) appealing a post-certification summary judgment or post-trial judgment. Joint Decl. ¶ 16. Moreover, even if a litigation class were certified and Plaintiff prevailed on the merits, it would still take years to litigate the Action through trial and the various appeals. Id. ¶ 17. The Settlement eliminates all of those risks and the years of delays by getting the Settlement Class Members their money and the non-monetary security enhancements now. Id. ¶ 18.

Thus, the uncertainty of a trial and the expense and delay of prolonged litigation weigh in favor of a finding that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. See In re the Home Depot, Inc., Cust. Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 1:14-md-02583, 2016 WL 6902351, at *6 (N.D. Ga. Aug. 23, 2016) (“[I]t is unclear whether future recovery at trial could achieve more than the relief made available in the Settlement. The early settlement of this case benefits the Settlement Class and weighs strongly in favor of final approval.”); Bennett v. Behring Corp., 96 F.R.D. 343, 349–50 (S.D. Fla. 1982) (stating that it would have been “unwise [for plaintiffs] to risk the substantial benefits which the settlement confers . . . to the vagaries of a trial”), aff’d, 737 F.2d 982 (11th Cir.

Dec. 16, 2019); see also In re Wawa, Inc. Data Sec. Litig., No. 19-6019, 2024 WL 1557366, at *20 (E.D. Pa. April 9, 2024) (“Data breach litigation is inherently complex.”); In re Equifax Inc. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 17-MD-2800, 2020 WL 256132, *15 (N.D. Ga. Mar. 17, 2020) (in data breach “[t]he law . . . remains uncertain and the applicable legal principles have continued to evolve”). For these reasons, data breach cases like this one have been dismissed at the pleading stage and generally face substantial class certification hurdles. See, e.g., In re Blackbaud, Inc., Customer Data Breach Litigation, No. 3:20-mn-02972-JFA, 2024 WL 21555221 (D.S.C. May 14, 2024) (denying class certification in a data breach action after concluding proposed class and sub-classes were not ascertainable); In re TD Ameritrade Account Holder Litig., No. C 07-2852 SBA, 2011 WL 4079226, at *14 (N.D. Cal. Sep. 13, 2011) (“many [data breach class actions] have been dismissed at the pleading stage.”); In re TJX Cos. Retail Sec. Breach Litig., 246 F.R.D. 389 (D. Mass. 2007) (denying class certification in cybersecurity incident class action litigation). Maintaining class certification is often an equally challenging hurdle. See e.g., Marriott Int’l Inc. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., 78 F.4th 677 (4th Cir. Aug. 18, 2023) (decertifying classes).

2. The range of possible recovery and the point over or below the range of possible recovery at which a settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

In determining whether a settlement is fair given the potential range of recovery, the Court should be guided by “the fact that a proposed settlement amounts to only a fraction of the potential recovery does not mean the settlement is unfair or inadequate.” Behrens v. Wometco Enters., Inc., 118 F.R.D. 534, 542 (S.D. Fla. 1988), aff’d, 899 F.2d 21 (11th Cir. 1990). Indeed, “[a] settlement can be satisfying even if it amounts to a hundredth or even a thousandth of a single percent of the potential recovery.” Id. This is because a settlement must be evaluated “in light of the attendant risks with litigation.” Thompson v. Metropolitan Life Ins. Co., 216 F.R.D. 55, 64 (S.D.N.Y. 2003); see also Bennett, 737 F.2d at 986 (“[C]ompromise is the essence of settlement.”).

The risk of establishing damages in this Action was not insignificant. Joint Decl. ¶ 20. Indeed, there is no assurance that a jury or the Court would find in favor of the Settlement Class and awarded the full amounts claimed as owed. Id. See, e.g., Southern Independent Bank v. Fred’s, Inc., No. 2:15-CV-799-WKW, 2019 WL 1179396, at *8 (M.D. Ala. Mar. 13, 2019) (ruling under Daubert that causation not satisfied for class certification purposes in data breach action). Indeed, the damages methodologies, while theoretically sound in Plaintiff’s view, remain untested in a disputed class certification setting and unproven in front of a jury.

Class Counsel vigorously advocated for the Settlement Class members in this Action and believe the Settlement is in the best interest of the Settlement Class. Joint Decl. ¶ 14. These benefits include estimated cash payments of $75.00, or reimbursement for Documented Losses of to $5,000.00 per Settlement Class Member, as well as credit monitoring and valuable relief comprised of comprehensive cybersecurity improvements. Agreement ¶ 59. The Settlement offers substantial Settlement Class Member Benefits that favorably compare with similar data breach class actions.

See, e.g., Baksh v. IvyRehab Network, Inc., No. 7:20-cv-01845 (S.D.N.Y.) (reimbursing out-of-pocket expenses up to $75 and $20 for lost time, capped at $75,000 in the aggregate, credit monitoring, and data security enhancements); Rutledge v. Saint Francis Healthcare Sys., No. 1:20-cv-00013-SPC (E.D. Mo.) (reimbursing out-of-pocket expenses and lost time up to $180, credit monitoring, and data security enhancements); Chacon v. Nebraska Medicine, No. 8:21-cv-00070 (D. Neb.) (reimbursing ordinary expenses up to $300, extraordinary expenses up to $3,000, credit monitoring, and data security enhancements).

Another effective way of comparing data breach settlements is to divide the common fund amount by the number of class members. See, e.g., In re Experian Data Breach Litig., No. SACV 15-01592 AG (DMFx), 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 81243, at *25 (C.D. Cal. May 10, 2019) (noting settlement provided a $1.47 payout per person, “which compares favorably to other approved data breach settlements” and collecting cases showing same). Here, the $475,000.00 Settlement Fund is favorable as it amounts to nearly $5.00 per person. Joint Decl. ¶ 12.

The Settlement will provide certain, substantial, and immediate relief to the Settlement Class. Id. ¶ 13. It ensures Settlement Class Members with Valid Claims will receive guaranteed compensation now, provides Settlement Class Members with access to Settlement Class Member Benefits that may not have been available at trial, and confirms Defendant has taken security measures to protect Settlement Class Members’ data that may remain in its possession. Id. Accordingly, the Court should find the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and within the range of possible recovery.

3. The complexity, expense, and duration of litigation

Given the “particularly risky, expensive and complex” nature of data breach cases, see footnote 5, supra, litigating these claims further would have undoubtedly proven difficult and consumed even more significant time, money, and judicial resources. Even if Plaintiff ultimately prevailed in the Action, that success would likely benefit the class only after years of trial and appellate proceedings and substantial expense to both sides. Id. ¶ 17; Lee, 2015 WL 5449813, at *9 (citing In re Oil Spill by Oil Rig Deepwater Horizon in Gulf of Mex., 910 F. Supp. 2d 891, 932 (E.D. La. 2012) (“Even assuming litigation could obtain the results that this Settlement provides, years of litigation would stand between the class and any such recovery. Hence, this...factor weighs strongly in favor of granting final approval to the Settlement Agreement.”)). In contrast, the Settlement saves the Court and the Parties’ resources and provides immediate relief to the Settlement Class. These benefits come without the expense, uncertainty, and delay of continued and indefinite litigation.

The Court should consider the vagaries of litigation and compare the significance of immediate recovery by way of the compromise to the mere possibility of relief in the future, after protracted and expensive litigation. In this respect, it has been held proper to take the bird in the hand instead of a prospective flock in the bush.

Lipuma v. American Express Co., 406 F. Supp. 2d 1298, 1323 (S.D. Fla. 2005); In re U.S. Oil & Gas Litig., 967 F.2d at 493 (complex litigation “can occupy a court’s docket for years on end, depleting the resources of the parties and taxpayers while rendering meaningful relief increasingly elusive”). In light of the costs, uncertainties, and delays of litigating through trial—to say nothing of an appeal— “the benefits to the class of the present settlement become all the more apparent.” See Ressler v. Jacobson, 822 F. Supp. 1551, 1555 (M.D. Fla. 1992).

4. The substance and amount of opposition to the Settlement

The Settlement Class fully endorses and supports the Settlement. Joint Decl. ¶ 22. Following the successful Notice Program, the Settlement Class had ample opportunity to opt-out or object to the Settlement. Id. As of the date of the filing of this motion, no Settlement Class Members have opted-out or objected. Id.; Admin. Decl. ¶ 31. The deadline to opt-out of or object to the Settlement is July 16, 2025 (30 days before the Final Approval Hearing). Joint Decl. ¶ 23. Should any objections be timely filed, Class Counsel will notify the Court before Final Approval Hearing. Id. The same is true if anyone opts-out. Id.

5. The stage of the proceedings at which the Settlement was achieved

Courts consider “the degree of case development that class counsel have accomplished prior to settlement” to ensure that “counsel had an adequate appreciation of the merits of the case before negotiating.” In re Gen. Motors Pick-up Truck Fuel Tank Prods. Liab. Litig., 55 F.3d 768, 813 (3d Cir. 1995). At the same time, “[t]he law is clear that early settlements are to be encouraged, and accordingly, only some reasonable amount of discovery should be required to make these determinations.” Ressler, 822 F. Supp. at 1555. The Action settled after a thorough exchange of informal discovery, between parties that litigated the same issues in parallel in federal court. Joint Decl. ¶ 8. Based upon Class Counsel’s experience, this was an appropriate time to negotiate a classwide settlement. Id. ¶ 9.

Based on the foregoing, it is Class Counsel’s well-informed opinion that, given the uncertainty and further substantial risk and expense of pursuing the Action through contested dispositive motions, class certification proceedings, trial, and appeal, the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. Id. ¶ 28.

B. The Notice Program Was the Best Notice Practicable.

The Rule 1.220(c) notice requirements are designed to provide sufficient due process to class members by informing them of the action’s pendency and providing an opportunity to be heard or opt-out and must be the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances.” Nelson, 985 So. 2d at 576. To satisfy this requirement, individual notice should be provided to class members who can be identified through reasonable effort. See Cordell v. World Ins. Co., 355 So.

2d 479, 481 (Fla. 1st DCA 1978) (citing Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 173-75 (1974)). The best practicable notice is that which “is reasonably calculated, under all of the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Tr. Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950). Here, the Notice Program was timely commenced and completed in accordance with the Court’s instructions in the Preliminary Approval Order. See Preliminary Approval Order ¶¶ 10, 18; Admin Decl. ¶ 21.

IV. CLASS ACTION CERTIFICATION SHOULD BE GRANTED

Plaintiff and Class Counsel jointly request entry of a Final Approval Order certifying the Settlement Class pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a)(2) and (3). The Court has already preliminarily certified the Settlement Class. Preliminary Approval Order ¶ 4. For the reasons discussed below, Plaintiff and Class Counsel urge the Court to make a final determination that the Settlement Class meets the standards for class certification for settlement purposes. Defendant also supports certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only.

Class actions in Florida state courts are governed by Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220. The Florida Supreme Court has held that all proponents of class certification must satisfy the four prerequisites detailed in Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a) (i.e., numerosity, commonality, typicality, adequacy) as well as one of the three subdivisions of Rule 1.220(b). Sosa v. Safeway Premium Fin. Co., 73 So. 3d 91, 106-07 (Fla. 2011) (interpreting Rule 1.220(a) and (b)). It also held that “[a] trial court should resolve doubts with regard to certification in favor of certification.” Id. at 105. Plaintiff meets each of the Rule 1.220(b)(2) and (3) class certification requirements.

Numerosity: The movant must demonstrate the members of the class are so numerous that separate joinder of each member is impractical. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a)(1). “No specific number and no precise count are needed to sustain the numerosity requirement. Rather, class certification is proper if the class representative does not base the projected class size on mere speculation.” Sosa, 73 So. 3d at 114 (internal citations omitted). Here, numerosity is easily satisfied. There are nearly 100,000 members of the Settlement Class. See Joint Decl. ¶ 15. It would be impossible and/or impractical to (i) separately join each of the members of the Settlement Class in the Action or (ii) have each of the Settlement Class Member file suit and move to consolidate their suits into this Action concerning the same legal issues. Id.

Commonality: The movant must demonstrate the representative party’s claim(s) raises questions of law or fact common to the questions of law or fact raised by the claim of each member of the class. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a)(2).

The primary concern in the consideration of commonality is whether the representative’s claim arises from the same practice or course of conduct that gave rise to the remaining claims and whether the claims are based on the same legal theory. The threshold of the commonality requirement is not high. A mere factual difference between class members does not necessarily preclude satisfaction of the commonality requirement. Individualized damage inquiries will also not preclude class certification. Rather, the commonality requirement is aimed at determining whether there is a need for, and benefit derived from, class treatment. More specifically, the commonality prong only requires that resolution of a class action affect all or a substantial number of the class members, and that the subject of the class action presents a question of common or general interest. Furthermore, the commonality requirement is satisfied if the common or general interest of the class members is in the object of the action, the result sought, or the general question implicated in the action. This core of the commonality requirement is satisfied if the questions linking the class members are substantially related to the resolution of the litigation, even if the individuals are not identically situated.

Sosa, 73 So. 3d at 107-08 (internal citations omitted).

Commonality is easily satisfied. Plaintiff’s claims all turn on whether Defendant’s security environment was adequate to protect the Settlement Class’ Private Information, the resolution of which revolves around evidence that does not vary between members, and so can be fairly resolved for all Settlement Class Members at once.

Typicality: The movant must demonstrate the claim(s) of the representative party is typical of the claim of each member of the class. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a)(3). The key inquiry for a trial court when it determines whether a proposed class:

satisfies the typicality requirement is whether the class representative possesses the same legal interest and has endured the same legal injury as the class members. The test for typicality is not demanding and focuses generally on the similarities between the class representative and the putative class members. Mere factual differences between the class representative's claims and the claims of the class members will not defeat typicality. Rather, the typicality requirement is satisfied when there is a strong similarity in the legal theories upon which those claims are based and when the claims of the class representative and class members are not antagonistic to one another.

Sosa, 73 So. 3d at 114-15 (Fla. 2011) (internal citations omitted). Typicality is satisfied because there is a nexus between Plaintiff's and other Settlement Class Members' claims since they each concern Defendant's alleged failure to protect sensitive Personal Information in connection with the Data Incident and are thus based on the same legal theories and underlying events. Therefore, Plaintiff possesses similar legal interests and experienced the same legal injury as the Settlement Class Members. Plaintiff's claims are not antagonistic in any way to the claims of the Settlement Class Members.

Adequacy: The movant must demonstrate the representative party can fairly and adequately protect and represent the interests of each member of the class. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a)(4).

This inquiry serves to uncover conflicts of interest between the presumptive class representative and the class he or she seeks to represent. A trial court's inquiry concerning whether the adequacy requirement is satisfied contains two prongs. The first prong concerns the qualifications, experience, and ability of class counsel to conduct the litigation. The second prong pertains to whether the class representative's interests are antagonistic to the interests of the class members.

Sosa, 73 So. 3d at 115 (internal citations omitted). Adequacy is satisfied here because the Class Representative and Class Counsel have zealously litigated Plaintiff's claims, secured substantial relief, and have no interests antagonistic to the Settlement Class. See Joint Decl. ¶¶ 25-26. Further, Class Counsel are highly qualified and have a great deal of experience litigating consumer class actions, including in the data privacy context. Id. ¶ 26.

Predominance: “To meet the requirements of rule 1.220(b)(3), the party moving for class certification must establish that the class members’ common questions of law and fact predominate over individual class member claims.” Sosa, 73 So. 3d at 111 (quoting Rule 1.220(b)(3)). “Florida courts have held that common questions of fact predominate when the defendant acts toward the class members in a similar or common way.” Id. (internal citations omitted). Here, the questions of law and fact common to all members of the Settlement Class substantially outweigh any possible issues that are individual to each member of the Settlement Class.

Superiority: Finally, Rule 1.220(b)(3) superiority requirement is met. “[C]lass representation is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.” Id. Resolution of thousands of claims in one action is far superior to individual lawsuits because it promotes consistency and efficiency of adjudication. Joint Decl. ¶ 27. Given the small value of their individual claims, and their support for the Settlement, it can be inferred that Settlement Class Members are not interested in prosecuting their own claims. Id. Class Counsel is unaware of any other litigation against Defendant arising from the Data Incident. Id. It is desirable to litigate the claims in this Court given Defendant’s substantial business activity in Florida, and because the causes of action accrued in Florida, and manageability is no concern in the context of class settlement approval. Id.

For these reasons, the Court should finally certify the Settlement Class.

V. APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEYS’ FEES, COSTS, AND SERVICE AWARD

Class Counsel respectfully requests a $2,000.00 Service Award to compensate the Plaintiff for his work in filing the Action and facing the risks associated with serving as a Class Representative. Id. ¶ 32. In prosecuting this action, the Class Representative expended time and effort and took significant financial and reputational risks for the benefit of the putative class. Id. ¶ 33. This imposed a burden on him out of proportion to his individual stake in the matter. No objections have been asserted to the Service Award. Id. ¶ 36.

Class Counsel also respectfully requests the Court award $166,250.00 in attorneys' fees, which represents 35% of the Settlement Fund. Id. ¶ 29. Following receipt of Notice, no Settlement Class Member has objected to the amount of attorneys' fees requested. Id. ¶ 36. Class Counsel's request is consistent with Florida's standard for awarding attorneys' fees in common fund class action settlements, analyzing Class Counsel's lodestar and applying a contingency risk multiplier. Id. ¶ 30. For the reasons set forth below, the requested attorneys' fees are more than reasonable when compared to the time and effort devoted to the prosecution of the Action and the results achieved through the Settlement. Id. Further, Class Counsel seeks reimbursement of $7,915.04 in litigation costs. Id. ¶ 31. These costs, including filing fees, mediation fees, and expert costs were reasonably and necessarily incurred in an effort to effectively litigate Plaintiff's claims and negotiate and execute the Settlement Agreement. Id.

A. A Service Award for The Class Representative.

The Court should approve a $2,000.00 Service Award for the Class Representative, as it is just, fair, and reasonable and Defendant does not oppose such an award. Under Florida law, service awards in class actions are appropriate as compensation for the fact that class representatives are "identified as a class litigant in public records...[are] subject to fiduciary duties [and] may be deposed and required to produce records" and must engage in the litigation proceedings. Altamonte Springs Imaging, L.C. v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 12 So. 3d 850, 857 (Fla. 3d DCA 2009)

(affirming $10,000 award because being a class representative “is less an honor than a headache”). See also Holt v. HHH Motors, LLP, No. 16-2012-CA-010179, 2015 WL 14085461, at *2 (Fla. 4th Jud. Cir. June 17, 2015) (approving the payment of $5,000.00 to both of the named plaintiffs as an incentive award for their actions and contributions to the litigation.).

The Class Representative has actively followed this matter even prior to the complaint being filed in this matter and has made significant efforts on behalf of the Settlement Class, including maintaining contact with Class Counsel, participating in client interviews, providing relevant documents, assisting in the investigation of the Action, remaining available for consultation throughout settlement negotiations, reviewing relevant pleadings and the Settlement Agreement, and for answering Class Counsel’s many questions. Joint Decl. ¶ 34. The requested Service Award are justified in light of the Class Representative’s willingness to devote his time and energy to prosecuting this Action and is reasonable in consideration of the overall benefit conferred on the Settlement Class and should be approved. Id.

B. The Court Should Award the Requested Attorneys’ Fees.

The award of attorneys’ fees in Florida is controlled by Kuhnlein v. Dep’t of Revenue, 662 So. 2d 309 (Fla. 1995), and Standard Guar. Ins. Co. v. Quanstrom, 555 So. 2d 828 (Fla. 1990). “[U]nder the ‘common fund doctrine’ lawyers who recover a common fund for the benefit of others are entitled to reasonably attorney fees from the fund.” Kuhnlein, 662 So. 2d at 314. To calculate the fee award, the Court should examine Class Counsel’s lodestar (the hours reasonably expended at appropriate hourly rates), enhanced by a contingency risk and/or results achieved multiplier. In Kuhnlein, the Court identified the various factors for determining the reasonableness of the attorneys’ fees:

1. the time and labor required, the novelty, complexity, and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly;

2. the likelihood that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer;
3. the fee, or rate of fee, customarily charged in the locality for legal services of a comparable or similar nature;
4. the significance of, or amount involved in, the subject matter of the representation, the responsibility involved in the representation, and the results obtained;
5. the time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances and, as between attorney and client, any additional or special time demands or requests of the attorney by the client;
6. the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client;
7. the experience, reputation, diligence, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the service and the skill, expertise, or efficiency of effort reflected in the actual providing of such services; and
8. whether the fee is fixed or contingent, and, if fixed as to the amount or rate, then whether the client's ability to pay rested to any significant degree on the outcome of the representation.

Id. at 323 n.5; see also Nelson, 985 So. 2d at 573. As discussed below, these factors support the $166,250.00 requested in this Action, apply a contingency risk multiplier of approximately 1.28, which the Florida Supreme Court recognized in Kuhnlein should be applied “in recognition of the substantial benefit class counsel conferred upon the class members.” 662 So. 2d at 315. A maximum multiplier of five has been approved in common fund cases, with the Kuhnlein court reasoning that an “increased maximum multiplier . . . is appropriate in common-fund cases . . . to place greater emphasis on the monetary results achieved. Furthermore, a multiplier which increases fees to five times the accepted hourly rate is sufficient to alleviate the contingency risk factor involved and attract high level counsel to common fund cases while producing a fee which remains within the bounds of reasonableness.” Id. See also Ramos v. Phillip Morris Cos., 743 So. 2d 24, 32 (Fla. 3d DCA 1999) (recognizing a multiplier of five was justified).

1. The time and labor required, the novelty, complexity, and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly.

Prosecuting and settling the Action demanded considerable time, labor, and skill. Joint Decl. ¶ 39. Class Counsel's work on this matter includes: investigating the cause and effects of alleged unlawful sharing of Plaintiff's and Settlement Class Members' information, interviewing potential clients; evaluating the potential class representatives; contributing to the evaluation of the merits of the Action before filing the Complaint; conducting legal research; drafting the Complaint, working with experts, litigating the parallel multi-district action in federal court, drafting the settlement term sheet, the Settlement Agreement, the relevant notices of settlement, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, including Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award; communicating with defense counsel; preparing document and information requests for Defendant as part of informal discovery; engaging in extensive settlement negotiations with Defendant; and providing updates to and handling questions from our class representative. Id. Class Counsel were mindful to avoid duplicative efforts among themselves. Id.

Further, as explained supra, the Action presented complex questions of law and fact. See footnote 5, supra. As a result, the Settlement Class may never have secured relief, financial or otherwise, absent this Settlement. Without reaching a swift settlement, Plaintiff would have otherwise endured lengthy, expensive, and arduous litigation, during which he would still be exposed to the risk of identity theft. Accordingly, the requested attorneys' fee award considers the novel, complex, and difficult nature of data breach class action cases, and appropriately compensates Class Counsel's ability to resolve this matter efficiently while recovering the maximum amount available to the Settlement Class in a timely manner.

Indeed, Class Counsel's skill and experience in complex class action litigation weigh in favor of the requested attorneys' fee award. Joint Decl. ¶ 40. Class Counsel's background demonstrate that Class Counsel is experienced in the highly specialized field of class action litigation – particularly data breach class action litigation – and are well-credentialed and equal to the difficult and novel tasks at hand. Id. Settlement Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fee request is commensurate with that experience, which was leveraged here to procure the Settlement via early resolution of the Action.

2. The likelihood that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer.

This Action has required substantial time and labor from the attorneys. Id. ¶ 41. Accepting a putative class action of this difficulty and magnitude with thousands of putative class members, and the inherent and substantial risk involved, substantially impeded Class Counsel’s ability to work on other fee-generating and/or lower risk cases from the time the Action was being investigated throughout the litigation. Id. ¶ 42.

3. The fee, or rate of fee, customarily charged in the locality for legal services of a comparable or similar nature.

Class Counsel have significant and unique legal experience in consumer class action litigation, and data breach litigation specifically. Id. ¶ 53. The hourly rates charged by Class Counsel range from $750.00 to $1000.00 per hour for attorneys. See id. ¶ 54. These hourly rates are within the range of hourly rates approved by Florida courts and elsewhere in the United States for legal services in class actions of a similar nature, considering the type of matter, level of experience, training, and education. Id. ¶ 55. In United States Sugar Corp. v. Commerce and Indus. Ins. Co., No. 22-cv-21737-Scola, 2022 WL 4953191 (S.D. Fla. Aug. 3, 2023), the court noted: “The South Florida legal market has changed drastically in the last several years. Miami in particular has developed into a national legal market. That top-end firms will be able to charge national hourly rates in South Florida, now, is an inevitable consequence of that development.”

The court approved hourly rates ranging between $932 and $1,058 per hour for senior attorneys. Id. See also, e.g., Sos v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., No. 6:17-cv-890-PGB-LRH, 2021 WL 1186811, at *4 (M.D. Fla. Mar. 19, 2021) (approving rate of $800 for partners and $458 for associates and paralegal rates of $150 and $195 in recognition that “[c]ommercial class action law is sufficiently specialized that it should be considered a national market”); Jackson v. Wendy’s Int’l LLC, Case No. 6:16-cv-210-Orl-40DAB, Dkt. Nos. 153 and 157 (M.D. Fla. 2019) (approving application for attorneys’ fees utilizing lodestar crosscheck with rates of up to $950.00 for partners and $575.00 for associates); Preman v. Pollo Operations, Inc., Case No. 6:16-cv-443-ORL-41-GJK, Dkt. No. 69 (M.D. Fla. 2018) (approving partner rates of $950.00 and $717.00 for associate); Ioime v. Blanchard, Merriam, Adel & Kirkland, P.A., No. 5:15-cv-130-OC-30-PRL, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 195926, at *6 (M.D. Fla. May 16, 2016) (awarding fees based on hourly rates of $350 to $650, requested in Memo. of Law in Support of Final Approval of Class Action Settlement, ECF No. 46-2). Given the experience, reputation, and skills of Class Counsel, these hourly rates are reasonable and are well within those customarily charged in this locale for services of a similar nature. Joint Decl. ¶ 55. Courts around the country have approved these rates. Id.

Class Counsel’s lodestar (hours x hourly rates) is $129,900.00. Id. ¶ 45.⁵ Class Counsel will spend more time following Final Approval assisting the Settlement Administrator with distribution of the Cash Payments and attending to other Settlement administration matters.

As noted above, it would not be unreasonable for Class Counsel to seek a multiplier up to five times the lodestar amount. See Kuhnlein, 662 So. 2d at 313-15; Ramos, 743 So. 2d at 32. Here, Class Counsel request a 1.28, which is justified in light of the fact that Class Counsel rendered service without compensation, achieved a solid result, and offered extremely reasonable billing rates given their experience. See Joint Decl. ¶ 47. The requested fee is fair in view of the complicated nature of the Action, and the time, effort, and skill required. Id. The financial risks borne by Class Counsel fully support the fee requested. Id. ¶ 46. Other courts have awarded fees in data breach cases relying on risk multipliers in the range Class Counsel request here. In re Equifax Inc. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT, 2020 WL 256132, at 39-40 (N.D. Ga. Mar. 17, 2020) (finding multiplier of 2.62 reasonable and within the typical range). See also Martin v. Lake Cty., No. 2009-CA5295, 2016 Fla. Cir. LEXIS 2272, *24 (quoting Pinto v. Princess Cruise Lines, Ltd., 513 F. Supp. 2d 1334, 1344 (S.D. Fla 2007)) (“Florida’s lodestar analysis is patterned after, ‘lodestar multipliers in larger and complicated class actions range from 2.26 to 4.5, while three appears to be the average.’”); Roberts v. Capital One, N.A., No. 16 Civ. 4841 (LGS), (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 20, 2020) (awarding of 30% of the settlement fund or $5,100,000 resulting in a 2.22 multiplier).

Though Florida state courts are instructed to assess fees using the lodestar with multiplier analysis in common fund cases, Class Counsel believe it is also helpful for the Court to consider that historically courts approving fee requests in other data breach settlements have approved awards amounting up to 35% of the non-reversionary all cash settlement fund, applying the percentage of the fund approach. See, e.g., Garza v. HealthAlliance, Inc., No. 72450/2023 (NY Sup. Ct., Westchester Cty. Dec. 9, 2024) (approving 35% of common fund); Kondo, et al. v. Creative Services, Inc., No. 1:22-cv-10438-DJC, ECF No. 39 (D. Mass. Sept. 7, 2023) (approving one-third of the settlement fund); Ford v. Takeda Pharms. U.S.A., Inc., No. 1:21-cv-10090-WGY, 2023 WL 3679031 at *3 (D. Mass. Mar. 31, 2023) (same); Abrams, et al. v. The Savannah College of Art and Design Inc., No. 1:22-cv-04297-LMM, ECF No. 29 (N.D. Ga. Sept. 23, 2023) (same);

Phelps, et al. v. Toyotetsu North America, No. 6:22-cv-00106-CHB-HA, ECF No. 47 (E.D. Ken. Oct. 25, 2023) (same); In re: Forefront Data Breach Litigation, Case No. 1:21-cv-000887-LA, 2023 WL 6215366, at *9 (E.D. Wis. Mar. 22, 2023) (same); Davidson v. Healthgrades Operating Company, Inc., Case No. 1:21-cv-01250-RBJ, ECF No. 50 (D. Colo. Aug. 22, 2022) (same). Indeed, “[c]ourts routinely hold that one-third of a common fund is an appropriate attorneys’ fees award in [a] class action settlement[.]” Koszyk v. Country Fin., No. 16-cv-3571, 2016 WL 5109196, at *4 (N.D. Ill. Sept. 16, 2016). The 35% requested attorneys’ fee award sought here is squarely in line with fee awards approved in other settled class actions. Wolfgeher v. Commerce Bank, N.A., No. 1:09-MD-02036-JLK (S.D. Fla.) (Dkt. 3574) (awarding 38% of common fund); In re Checking Account Overdraft Litig., No. 1:09-MD-02036-JLK, 2020 WL 4586398 (S.D. Fla. Aug. 10, 2020) (awarding 35% of common fund); Swift v BancorpSouth, No. 1:10-cv-00090-GRJ (N.D. Fla.) (same).

4. The significance of, or amount involved in the subject matter of the representation, the responsibility involved in the representation, and the results obtained.

This Action raises issues of genuine importance to approximately 100,000 people who were affected by the Data Incident. Because of the significant risks associated with this Action and potential barriers faced by the Plaintiff, Class Counsel achieved a solid recovery for the Settlement Class that included $475,000.00 in monetary relief as well as nonmonetary relief. See Joint Decl. ¶ 11. This amount is well within the range of other recent data breach settlements when you compare the size of the class and benefits obtained.

Indeed, the result here demonstrates why the requested fee award is reasonable. The result achieved is a major factor to consider in making a fee award. Kuhnlein, 662 So. 2d at 315. See also Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 436, (1983) (“critical factor is the degree of success obtained”); Pinto v. Princess Cruise Lines, 513 F. Supp. 2d 1334, 1342 (S.D. Fla. 2007); Behrens, 118 F.R.D. at 547-48 (“The quality of work performed in a case that settles before trial is best measured by the benefit obtained.”).

In considering the results, courts examine the value of both monetary and non-monetary relief. See Marty v. Anheuser-Busch Cos., LLC, No. 13-cv-23656-JJO, 2015 WL 6391185, at *2 (S.D. Fla. Oct. 22, 2015) (“[the] trial court properly concluded that ‘class received substantial benefit’ from label change that removed allegedly misleading statement . . . and non-monetary relief was properly considered in evaluating attorneys’ fees”); Perez v. Asurion Corp., 501 F. Supp. 2d 1360 (S.D. Fla. 2007). The Settlement Fund and security enhancements achieved here demonstrate that the results achieved through the Settlement are significant.

5. The time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances and, as between attorney and client, any additional or special time demands or requests of the attorney by the client.

Class Counsel incorporate by reference the previous discussion regarding their inability to work on other cases because of the time burdens of this Action and its importance. See Joint Decl. ¶ 42. With respect to demands imposed by the client, the representation of the Settlement Class does not end with Final Approval of the Settlement. Id. ¶ 43. Ultimately, Class Counsel are responsible for seeing that the terms of the Settlement are followed, which will involve a substantial time commitment. Id. ¶ 44.

6. The nature and length of the professional relationship with the client.

Class Counsel and Plaintiff have had a relationship from well before filing the Complaint in this action and will continue to work with one another for a few more months, including time after Final Approval. Id. ¶ 49. The investigation, prosecution, and settlement of this Action has required a substantial amount of Class Counsel’s time and effort. Id. Class Counsel spent significant time working with the Plaintiff—investigating the Action and keeping them informed of the progress of the Action. Id.

7. The experience, reputation, diligence and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the service and the skill, expertise or efficiency of effort reflected in the actual providing of such services.

Class Counsel have demonstrated their skills, experience, and reputation. Class Counsel have extensive experience in the litigation, certification, trial, and settlement of consumer class-action litigation, and specifically in data breach litigation. Id. ¶ 53. There are few, if any, firms in the nation with the expertise of Class Counsel in these types of cases. Id. Class Counsel has collectively recovered billions of dollars for the classes they represented in hundreds of cases. Id. In negotiating this Settlement, Class Counsel had the benefit of years of experience and a familiarity with the facts of this Action as well as with other data breach cases. Id.

Class Counsel's reputation, diligence, expertise, and skills are reflected in the work they performed and the results they achieved. The fact that Class Counsel were able to successfully resolve the Action through recovery of up to $5,000 per person for documented losses or a flat cash payment estimated at $75 per person, is testament to their skill, expertise, and efficiency of effort despite the potential hurdles presented, including appellate proceedings.

8. Whether the fee is fixed or contingent, and if fixed as to the amount or rate, then whether the client's ability to pay rested to any significant degree on the outcome of the representation.

The fee arrangement in this matter was fully contingent, meaning that Class Counsel have not received any compensation for their services in this Action after rendering the services described above. Id. ¶ 37. The fully contingent nature of this representation further supports the requested fee award, applying the requested multiplier.

Indeed, "[a] contingency fee arrangement often justifies an increase in the award of attorney's fees." Behrens, 118 F.R.D. at 548; see also In re Continental Ill. Sec. Litig., 962 F.2d 566 (7th Cir. 1992) (holding that when a common fund case has been prosecuted on a contingent basis, plaintiffs' counsel must be compensated adequately for the risk of non-payment); Ressler, 149 F.R.D. at 656 ("Numerous cases recognize that the attorney's contingent fee risk is an important factor in determining the fee award"); Walters v. Atlanta, 652 F. Supp. 755, 759 (N.D. Ga. 1985), modified, 803 F.2d 1135 (11th Cir. 1986); York v. Alabama Senate Bd. of Ed., 631 F. Supp. 78, 86 (M.D. Ala. 1986). As the Behrens court observed:

Generally, the contingency retainment must be promoted to assure representation when a person could not otherwise afford the services of a lawyer. . . . A contingency fee arrangement often justifies an increase in the award of attorney's fees. This rule helps assure that the contingency fee arrangement endures. If this "bonus" methodology did not exist, very few lawyers could take on the representation of a class client given the investment of substantial time, effort, and money, especially in light of the risks of recovering nothing.

Behrens, 118 F.R.D. at 548.

That multiplier specifically addresses the contingent nature of Class Counsel's representation of Plaintiff, the putative class, and now the Settlement Class and the results Class Counsel obtained for them. Kuhnlein, 662 So. 2d at 315. Class Counsel received no compensation during the course of this Action and have incurred expenses litigating on behalf of the Settlement Class before this Court, which they risked losing had Defendant prevailed at the motion to dismiss, summary judgment, class certification, trial, or appellate stages. From the time Class Counsel filed the Action, there existed a real possibility they would achieve no recovery and, hence, no compensation.

C. Class Counsel's Costs are Reasonable

Further, Class Counsel has also incurred reasonable and necessary costs to pursue the claims in this Action. Joint Decl. ¶ 56; see also Mills v. Electric Auto-Lite Co., 396 U.S. 375, 391-92 (1970). To date, those costs are $8, and consist of court filing fees, expert fees, and mediation fees. Joint Decl. ¶ 56.

CONCLUSION

For all these reasons, Plaintiff and Class Counsel respectfully request this Court enter an order: (a) granting Final Approval to the Settlement; (b) affirming certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes; (c) reaffirming the appointment of Plaintiff as Class Representative; (d) reaffirming the appointments of Class Counsel; awarding Class Counsel $166,250.00 in attorneys' fees and $7,915.04 in costs; (f) awarding a Service Award to the Class Representative in the amount of $2,000; (g) approving payment of all Settlement Administration Costs; (h) overruling any timely objections, if any; and (i) entering final judgment dismissing the Action with prejudice and reserving jurisdiction over Settlement implementation. Plaintiff attaches a proposed Final Approval Order as Exhibit D,

For purposes of calculating the pro rata increase or decrease, the Settlement Administrator must distribute the funds in the Net Settlement Fund first for payment of Credit Monitoring and then for Cash Payments. Any pro rata increases or decreases to Cash Payments will be on an equal percentage basis. If a Settlement Class Member does not submit a Valid Claim, the Settlement Class Member will release his or her claims without receiving a Settlement Class

Member Benefit.

a. Cash Payment A – Documented Losses

Except as expressly provided herein, personal certifications, declarations, or affidavits from the Settlement Class Member do not constitute reasonable documentation but may be included to provide clarification, context, or support for other submitted reasonable documentation. Settlement Class Members shall not be reimbursed for expenses if they have been reimbursed for the same expenses by another source, including compensation provided in connection with the credit monitoring and identity theft protection product offered as part of the notification letter provided by Defendant or otherwise. If a Settlement Class Member does not submit reasonable documentation supporting a loss, or if their Claim is rejected by the Settlement Administrator for any reason, and the Settlement Class Member fails to cure his or her Claim, the Claim will be rejected and the Settlement Class Member's Claim will be as if he or she elected Cash Payment B.

b. Cash Payment B – Flat Cash

As an alternative to Cash Payment A above, a Settlement Class Member may elect to receive Cash Payment B, which is a flat cash payment in the estimated amount of $75.00.

c. Credit Monitoring

In addition to Cash Payment A or Cash Payment B, Settlement Class Members may also make a Claim for Credit Monitoring that will include three years of CyEx's Identity Defense Complete with: (i) real time monitoring of the credit file with one credit bureau; (ii) dark web scanning with immediate notification of potential unauthorized use; (iii) security freezing assistance; (iv) victim assistance; (v) $1,000,000.00 in identity theft insurance with no deductible; and (vi) access to fraud resolution agents to help investigate and resolve instances of identity theft.

d. Injunctive Relief

Prior to Final Approval, Defendant will provide Class Counsel with a security attestation regarding security measures it implemented following the Data Incident. The costs of any such security measures on the part of Defendant shall be fully borne by it, and under no circumstances will such costs be deducted from the Settlement Fund.

If the Settlement Class Member timely and adequately provides the requested information and/or documentation, the Claim shall be deemed a Valid Claim and processed by the Settlement Administrator. If the Settlement Class Member does not timely and completely provide the requested information and/or documentation, the Settlement Administrator shall reduce or deny the Claim unless Defendant and Class Counsel otherwise agree.

79. Where a good faith basis exists, the Settlement Administrator may reduce or reject a Claim for, among other reasons, the following:

- b. Illegible Claim Form;
- c. The Claim Form is fraudulent;

- d. The Claim Form is duplicative of another Claim Form;

- b. A request for additional information by sending a Notice of Deficiency shall not be considered a denial for purposes of this Paragraph;
- c. If a Claim is rejected for fraud or duplication, the Settlement Administrator shall notify the Claimant using the contact information provided in the Claim Form. Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel shall be provided with copies of all such notifications to Claimants; and
- d. The Settlement Administrator's determination as to whether to approve, deny, or reduce a Claim shall be final and binding.

81. The Settlement Administrator shall provide all information gathered in investigating Claims, including, but not limited to, copies of all correspondence and email and all notes of the Settlement Administrator, the decision reached, and all reasons supporting the

82. No person or entity shall have any claim against Defendant, Defendant's Counsel, Plaintiff, the Settlement Class, Class Counsel, and/or the Settlement Administrator based on any eligibility determinations, distributions, or awards made in accordance with this Settlement.

83. No later than 75 days after Final Approval or 30 days after the Effective Date, whichever is later, the Settlement Administrator shall distribute the Settlement Class Member Benefits.

84. Cash Payments to Settlement Class Members will be made by electronic payment or by paper check. Following Final Approval, the Settlement Administrator will send Settlement Class Members an email to select a form of electronic payment or to receive payment by paper check. In the event a Settlement Class Member does not make an election or there is a problem with issuance of an electronic payment, a paper check will be sent to the Settlement Class Member's last known address. Settlement Class Members shall have 90 days to select their form of payment. Paper checks must be negotiated within 90 days of issuance. In the event the Settlement Administrator is unable to distribute funds to the Settlement Class Members entitled to receive them due to incorrect or incomplete information provided to the Settlement Administrator, the funds shall become residual funds, and such Settlement Class Members shall forfeit their entitlement right to the funds.

85. In the event there are funds remaining in the Settlement Fund 240 days following the date Settlement Class members are sent an email to select their form of payment, said funds attributable to unclaimed and undeliverable funds shall be treated as residual funds as described in Section XII.

86. The Settlement Administrator will send an email to Settlement Class Members with Valid Claims that include an election for Credit Monitoring with information on how to enroll in the Credit Monitoring, including the activation code.

X. Final Approval Order and Final Judgment

87. Plaintiff shall file their Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, inclusive of the Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award, no later than 45 days before the original date set for the Final Approval Hearing. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will hear argument on Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement and Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award. In the Court's discretion, the Court will also hear argument at the Final Approval Hearing from any Settlement Class Members (or their counsel) who object to the Settlement and/or to the Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award, provided the objectors submitted timely objections that meet all of the requirements listed in this Agreement.

88. At or following the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will determine whether to enter the Final Approval Order and final judgment thereon, and whether to grant the Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award. Such proposed Final Approval Order shall, among other things:

If approved, the Service Award shall be paid by the Settlement Administrator out of the Settlement Fund within 15 business days of the Effective Date. The Service Award to the Class Representative shall be separate and apart from his entitlement to Settlement Class Member Benefits.

90. Attorneys' Fees and Costs - Class Counsel shall apply to the Court for an award of attorneys' fees of up to 35% of the Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of costs. The attorneys' fees and cost awards approved by the Court shall be paid by the Settlement Administrator out of the Settlement Fund by wire transfer to an account designated by Class Counsel within 15 business days of the Effective Date.

91. This Settlement is not contingent on approval of the request for attorneys' fees and costs or Service Award, and if the Court denies the request or grants amounts less than what was requested, the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in force. The provisions for attorneys' fees and costs and Service Award were not negotiated until after all material terms of the Settlement.

XII. Disposition of Residual Funds

92. In the event there are funds remaining in the Settlement Fund 240 days following the date Settlement Class members are sent an email to select their form of payment, any residual shall be distributed to the Electronic Privacy Information Center, to be approved by the Court.

cause to be maintained, or voluntarily assist in maintaining any further demand, action, claim, lawsuit, arbitration, or similar proceeding, in any capacity whatsoever, based on any of the Released Claims.

95. Settlement Class members who opt-out of the Settlement prior to the Opt-Out Deadline do not release their claims arising out of related to the Data Incident, and will not obtain any of the Settlement Class Member Benefits under the Settlement.

99. If any of the conditions specified in the preceding paragraph are not met, or if the Court otherwise imposes any modification to or condition of approval of the Settlement to which the Parties do not consent, then this Agreement shall be cancelled and terminated.

100. In the event this Agreement is terminated or fails to become effective, then the Parties shall return to the status quo ante in the Action as if the Parties had not entered into this Agreement, and the Parties shall jointly file a status report in the Court seeking to reopen the Action and all papers filed. BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is this Notice being provided?

A state court authorized this Notice because you have the right to know about the Settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your rights and options before the Court decides whether to grant final approval to the Settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, your legal rights, what Settlement Class Member Benefits are available, who is eligible for the Settlement Class Member benefits, and how to get them.

The Honorable Hunter Davis of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, Florida is overseeing this class action. The lawsuit is known as Collins v. Imagine360, LLC, Case No. CACE-25-002370 (the “lawsuit”). The individual who filed this lawsuit is called the “Plaintiff” and/or “Class Representative” and the company sued, Imagine360, LLC, is called the “Defendant.”

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The Plaintiff filed this lawsuit against Defendant, and on behalf of Settlement Class Members regarding unauthorized access to Settlement Class Members’ Private Information involved in the Data Incident. The Private Information involved in the Data Incident includes names, medical information, health insurance information, and Social Security numbers..

The Plaintiff alleges on or around January 30, 2023, as a result of the Data Incident, there was an unauthorized access to or acquisition of Private Information as a result of unauthorized access to Defendant’s Citrix file-sharing solution. The Plaintiff brought this lawsuit against Defendant.

Defendant denies the legal claims and denies any wrongdoing or liability. The Court has not made any determination of any wrongdoing by Defendant, or that any law has been violated. Instead, the Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to a settlement to avoid the risk, cost, and time of continuing the lawsuit.

3. Why is there a Settlement?

The Plaintiff and Defendant do not agree about the legal claims made in this lawsuit. The lawsuit has not gone to trial, and the Court has not decided in favor of the Plaintiff or Defendant. Instead, the Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to settle the lawsuit. The Class Representative, Defendant, and their lawyers believe the Settlement is best for Settlement Class Members because of the Settlement Class Member Benefits available and the risks and uncertainty associated with continuing the lawsuit.

4. Why is this lawsuit a class action?

In a class action, one or more people (called class representatives) sue on behalf of all people who have similar legal claims. Together, all these people are called a class or class members. One court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those class members who timely exclude themselves (opt-out) from the class.

The Class Representative in this lawsuit is Plaintiff Anthony Collins.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am included in the Settlement?

You are included in the Settlement Class if you are an individual residing in the United States and you were sent notice of the Data Incident indicating your Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

6. Are there exceptions to being included in the Settlement?

Yes. Excluded from the Settlement Class are: (1) all persons who are directors, officers, and agents of Defendant, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliated companies; (2) governmental entities; and (3) the Judge assigned to the lawsuit, the Judge's immediate family, and Court staff.

7. What if I am still not sure whether I am part of the Settlement?

If you are still not sure whether you are a Settlement Class Member, you may go to www.XXXXXXXXXX.com or call toll-free 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX.

Personal certifications, declarations, or affidavits from the Settlement Class Member do not constitute reasonable documentation but may be included to provide clarification, context, or support for other submitted reasonable documentation. You will not be reimbursed for expenses if you have been reimbursed for the same expenses by another source.

If you do not submit reasonable documentation supporting a loss, or if your Claim Form is invalid as determined by the Settlement Administrator, and you do not cure your Claim Form, your Claim Form will be denied and your Claim Form for Cash Payment A will instead be processed as if you elected Cash Payment B.

Cash Payment B – FLAT CASH

Instead of selecting Cash Payment A, without providing documentation, you may submit a Claim Form to receive a flat cash payment in the estimated amount of $75.00.

Questions? Go to www.XXXXXXXXXX.com or call 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX

Credit Monitoring Claims

In addition to Cash Payment A or Cash Payment B, you may also submit a Claim Form to receive up to three years of free Credit Monitoring.

Your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata (a legal term meaning equal share) adjustment increase from the Settlement Fund if the amount of timely and valid Claim Forms does not use the entire Net Settlement Fund. Alternatively, if the amount of timely and valid Claim Forms exceeds the amount of the Net Settlement Fund, your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata reduction.

Injunctive Relief: Defendant is implementing additional security measures following the Data Incident.

9. What am I giving up to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits or stay in the Settlement Class?

Unless you exclude yourself (opt-out), you are choosing to remain in the Settlement Class. If the Settlement is approved and becomes final, all Court orders and any judgments will apply to you and legally bind you. You will not be able to sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Released Parties about the legal issues in this lawsuit that are released by this Settlement. The specific rights you are giving up are called “Released Claims.”

10. What are the Released Claims?

Section XIII of the Settlement Agreement describes the Released Claims and the Releases, in necessary legal terminology, so please read these sections carefully. The Settlement Agreement is available at www.XXXXXXXXXX.com. For questions regarding the Releases or Released Claims and what the language in the Settlement Agreement means, you can also contact Class Counsel listed in Question 19 for free, or you can talk to your own lawyer at your own expense.

11. How do I submit a Claim Form?

It may take time for the Settlement to be approved and become final. Please be patient and check www.XXXXXXXXXX.com for updates.

EXCLUDE YOURSELF OR OPT-OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT

If you are a Settlement Class Member and want to keep any right you may have to sue or continue to sue the Released Parties on your own based about the legal claims in this lawsuit or released by the Released Claims, then you must take steps to get out of the Settlement. This is called excluding yourself from—or “opting-out” of—the Settlement.

14. How do I opt out of the Settlement?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must mail a written request for exclusion, which includes the following:

- 1) Your name, address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
- 2) Your personal physical signature; and
- 3) A statement that you want to be excluded from the Settlement Class, such as “I hereby request to be excluded from the Settlement Class in the Imagine360 Data Breach Litigation.”

The exclusion request must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator at the following address, and be postmarked by MONTH DD, 20YY:

Imagine360 Data Breach Litigation
Settlement Administrator
PO Box XXXX
Portland, OR 972XX-XXXX

You cannot opt-out (exclude yourself) by telephone or by email.

“Mass” or “class” requests for exclusion filed by third parties on behalf of a “mass” or “class” of Settlement Class Members or multiple Settlement Class Members where the opt out hasn’t been signed by each and every individual Settlement Class Member will not be allowed.

15. If I opt-out can I still get anything from the Settlement?

No. If you opt-out, you will not be entitled to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits, and you will not be bound by the Settlement or any judgment in this lawsuit. You can only get Settlement Class Member Benefits if you stay in the Settlement and submit a timely and valid Claim Form.

16. If I do not opt-out, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you opt-out, you give up any right to sue any of the Released Parties for the legal claims this Settlement resolves and Releases relating to the Data Incident, and you will be bound by all the terms of the Settlement and by all proceedings, orders, and judgments in the lawsuit. You must opt-out of this lawsuit to start or continue with your own lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against the Released Parties. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

17. How do I tell the Court I do not like the Settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can tell the Court you do not agree with all or any part of the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award.

To object, you must file timely written notice with the Court as provided below no later than MONTH DD, 20YY, and send by U.S. mail to Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator postmarked by or shipped by private courier (such as Federal Express) by MONTH DD, 20YY, stating you object to the Settlement in Collins v. Imagine360, LLC, Case No. CACE-25-002370.

To file an objection, you cannot exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. Your objection must include all of the following information:

- 1) Your full name, address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
- 2) All grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection known to you as the objector or your own lawyer;
- 3) The number of times you have objected to a class action settlement within the five (5) years preceding the date that you file the objection, the caption of each case in which you have made such objection, and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon your prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case;
- 4) The identity of all lawyers representing you in connection with the objection (if any), including any former or current counsel who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards;
- 5) The number of times in which your lawyer or your lawyer's law firm have objected to a class action settlement within the five (5) years preceding the date of the filed objection, the caption of each case in which your lawyer or the firm has made such objection and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon your lawyer's or the lawyer's law firm's prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case in which your lawyer's counsel and/or lawyer's law firm have objected to a class action settlement within the preceding (5) years;
- 6) The identity of all counsel (if any) representing you as an objector, and whether they will appear at the Final Approval Hearing;
- 7) A list of all persons who will be called to testify at the Final Approval Hearing in support of the objection (if any);
- 8) A statement confirming whether you intend to personally appear and/or testify at the Final Approval Hearing; and
- 9) Your signature as the objector (an attorney's signature is not sufficient).

Lancaster Ave., Suite 200 Devon, PA 19333	Imagine360 Data Breach Litigation Settlement Administrator PO Box XXXX Portland, OR 972XX-XXXX

If you do not comply with the requirements for objecting as detailed above, you will waive and forfeit any and all rights you may have to appear separately and/or to object to the Settlement and you will be bound by all the terms of the Settlement and by all proceedings, orders, and judgments in the lawsuit.

18. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you don't like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Opting-out is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you opt-out, you cannot object because you are no longer part of the Settlement.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

19. Do I have a lawyer in the lawsuit?

Yes. The Court has appointed Jeff Ostrow of Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A, and Nicholas A. Colella of Lynch Carpenter, LLP as Class Counsel to represent you and the Settlement Class for the purposes of this Settlement. You may hire your own lawyer at your own cost and expense if you want someone other than Class Counsel to represent you in this lawsuit.

20. How will Class Counsel be paid?

Class Counsel will file a motion asking the Court to award the attorneys' fees of up to 35% of the $475,000 Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of costs. Class Counsel will also ask the Court to approve a Service Award for the Class Representative of up to $2,000 for their efforts in achieving the Settlement. If awarded by the Court, the attorneys' fees and costs, and the Service Award will be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Court may award less than these amounts.

Class Counsel's Application for the Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award will be made available on the Settlement Website at www.XXXXXXXXXXX.com after it is filed with the Court.

THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The Court will hold a "Final Approval Hearing" to decide whether to approve the Settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak if you file an objection by the deadline, but you do not have to.

21. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on MONTH DD, 20YY, at XX:XX a.m./p.m. before the Honorable Hunter Davis at the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, 201 SE 6th St., Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and decide whether to approve the Settlement, Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award.

If there are objections that were filed by the deadline, the Court will consider them. If you file a timely objection, and you would like to speak at the hearing, the Court will also listen to you or your lawyer speak at the hearing, if you so request.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change without further notice to the Settlement Class. The Court may also decide to hold the hearing via video conference or by telephone. You should check the Settlement Website www.XXXXXXXXXX.com to confirm the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing have not changed.

22. Do I have to attend the Final Approval Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. However, you are welcome to attend at your own expense. If you file an objection, you do not have to attend the Final Approval Hearing to speak about it. As long as you file your written objection by the deadline, the Court will consider it.

23. May I speak at the Final Approval Hearing?

Yes, as long as you do not exclude yourself (opt-out) and you file a timely written objection requesting to speak at the hearing, you can (but do not have to) participate and speak for yourself at the Final Approval Hearing. This is called making an appearance. You can also have your own lawyer speak for you, but you will have to pay for the lawyer yourself.

If you want to appear, or if you want your own lawyer instead of Class Counsel to speak for you at the hearing, you must follow all of the procedures for objecting to the Settlement listed in Question 17 above—and specifically include a statement whether you or your lawyer will appear at the Final Approval Hearing.

(PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER)

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 17TH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR
BROWARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

ANTHONY COLLINS, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

CASE NO.: CACE-25-002370

Plaintiff,

v.

IMAGINE360, LLC,

Defendant.

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

WHEREAS, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Settlement Class, and Defendant have agreed, subject to Court approval, to settle this Action upon the terms and conditions stated in the Agreement:

NOW, THEREFORE, based on the Agreement, all the files, records, and proceedings herein, statements of counsel, and it appearing to the Court that a Final Approval Hearing should be held to determine whether the proposed settlement described in the Agreement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. All capitalized terms herein shall have the same meanings as those defined in Section II of the Agreement.
2. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the subject matter of this Action and the Parties, including Plaintiff and all Settlement Class members.
3. The Court preliminarily approves of the Settlement, including the Notice Program, finding that the proposed Settlement is sufficiently fair, reasonable, and adequate to warrant providing Notice to the Settlement Class, but such finding is not to be deemed as an admission of fault or liability by Defendant or a finding of the validity of any claims asserted in the Action or of any wrongdoing or of any violation of law by Defendant. Defendant shall maintain all rights to assert that, but for settlement purposes, the Action should not be certified as a class.

4. For purposes of determining whether the terms of the Settlement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate, the following Settlement Class is preliminarily certified for settlement purposes only:

All living individuals residing in the United States who were sent a notice by Defendant that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

5. Excluded from the Settlement Class are (a) all persons who are employees, directors, officers, and agents of Defendant; (b) governmental entities; and (c) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge's immediate family, and Court staff.

6. The Court preliminarily finds that the terms of the Settlement are fair, adequate, and reasonable. In so finding, the Court has considered several factors, including: (1) the complexity and duration of the litigation; (2) the reaction of the class to the settlement; (3) the stage of the proceedings; (4) the risk of establishing liability; (5) the risk of establishing damages; (6) the risk of maintaining a class action; (7) the ability of the defendant to withstand a greater judgment; (8) the reasonableness of the settlement in light of the best recovery; and (9) the range of reasonableness of the settlement in light of all the attendant risks of litigation.

7. The Court finds that, for purposes of settlement: the number of members of the Settlement Class is so numerous that joinder is impracticable; there are questions of law and fact common to the members of the Settlement Class; the claims of the Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the members of the Settlement Class; the Plaintiff is an adequate representative for the Settlement Class, and has retained experienced and adequate Class Counsel; the questions of law and fact common to the members of the Settlement Class predominate over any questions affecting any individual members of the Settlement Class; and a class action is superior to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

8. For purposes of settlement only, the Court finds and determines that Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the Settlement Class in enforcing his rights in the Action, and appoints him as Class Representative, and the following attorneys are preliminarily appointed as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class: Jeff Ostrow of Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A. and Nicholas A. Coeella of Lynch Carpenter, LLP.

9. The Parties have selected Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. to serve as the Settlement Administrator. The Court hereby approves of and appoints Epiq and directs it to commence the Notice Program and initiate the Claims Process and to otherwise comply with all obligations of the Settlement Administrator as outlined in the Agreement.

10. The Parties have prepared the Notices, which are attached to the Agreement. The Court preliminarily finds that the Notice provided to Settlement Class members is the most practicable notice; is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class members of the pendency of the Action and of their right to object or to exclude themselves from the Settlement; and is reasonable and constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class members entitled to receive notice.

11. The Court has carefully reviewed and hereby approves the Notice as to form and content and directs that they be without material alteration unless otherwise modified by agreement of the Parties and approved by the Court. The Court directs that the Notice be sent to the Settlement Class in the manner outlined in the Agreement.

12. Settlement Class members who wish to opt-out of the Settlement and exclude themselves from participation may do so by submitting timely and valid requests at any time before the end of the Opt-Out Period (30 days before the original date of the Final Approval Hearing). The process to opt-out is set forth in the Agreement and in the Notice. Settlement Class members who opt-out shall have no rights under the Settlement, shall not share in any Settlement Class Member Benefits, and shall not be bound by the Settlement or by any Final Approval Order and Judgment approving the Settlement.

13. All Settlement Class Members who do not submit a timely, written request for exclusion in the manner set forth in the Notice and Agreement shall be bound by any Final Approval Order and final judgment entered, even if such Settlement Class Members never received actual notice of this Action or the Settlement. If Final Approval of the Settlement is granted, they shall be barred, now and in the future, from asserting any of the Released Claims, as defined in the Agreement, against any Released Parties as defined in the Agreement.

14. Settlement Class Members who wish to object to the Settlement and/or to Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Service Award shall file any objections pursuant to the requirements of this paragraph. To be considered, the objection must include: (a) the objector's full name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address (if any); (b) all grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection known to the objector or objector's counsel; (c) the number of times the objector has objected to a class action settlement within the 5 years preceding the date that the objector files the objection, the caption of each case in which the objector has made such objection, and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon the objector's prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case; (d) the identity of all counsel who represent the objector, including any former or current counsel who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award; (e) the number of times in which the objector's counsel and/or counsel's law firm have objected to a class action settlement within the 5 years preceding the date of the filed objection, the caption of each case in which counsel or the firm has made such objection and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon counsel's or the counsel's law firm's prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case in which the objector's counsel and/or counsel's law firm have objected to a class action settlement within the preceding 5 years; (f) the identity of all counsel (if any) representing the objector, and whether they will appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (g) a list of all persons who will be called to testify at the Final Approval Hearing in support of the objection (if any); (h) a statement confirming whether the objector intends to personally appear and/or testify at the Final Approval Hearing; and (i) the objector's signature (an attorney's signature is not sufficient). Class Counsel and/or Defendant's Counsel may conduct limited discovery on any objector or objector's counsel.

15. Objections to the Settlement and/or the Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Service Award must be filed with the Court, and sent by U.S. Mail to Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator. For an objection to be considered by the Court, the objection must be submitted no later than the last day of the Objection Period (30 days before the original date of the Final Approval Hearing), as specified in the Notice. If submitted by mail, an objection shall be deemed to have been submitted when posted if received with a postmark date indicated on the envelope if mailed first-class postage prepaid and addressed in accordance with the instructions. If submitted by private courier, an objection shall be deemed to have been submitted on the shipping date reflected on the shipping label.

16. In advance of the Final Approval Hearing, the Settlement Administrator shall prepare a declaration for the Parties confirming that the Notice Program was completed in accordance with the terms of the Agreement and this Preliminary Approval Order, describing how the Notice Program was completed, indicating the number of Claim Forms received, providing the names of each Settlement Class member who timely and properly requested to opt out from the Settlement Class, indicating the number of objections received, and other information as may be necessary to allow the Parties to seek and obtain Final Approval.

17. The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing to consider the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the Settlement on _____, 2025, at _____ a.m./p.m. The Court will advise the Parties in advance of the Final Approval Hearing whether the hearing will be held in person at the Broward County Courthouse, 201 SE 6th St, Fort Luaderdale, Florida 33301, or by video conference. The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing will be set forth in the Notice and published on the Settlement Website. During the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement should be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate, and whether the Court should enter the proposed Final Approval Order and final judgment approving the Settlement and dismissing this Action on the merits, with prejudice. The Court will also consider the amount of any attorneys' fees and costs to be awarded to Class Counsel and whether to approve the amount of any Service Award to the Class Representative. The Final Approval Hearing may be postponed, adjourned, or rescheduled by order of the Court without further notice to Settlement Class members other than on the Settlement Website and the Court's docket.

18. The Court confirms the following schedule (which the court, upon showing of good cause by the Parties, may extend any of the deadlines):

	Order
Deadline to complete Notice Program	At least 60 days before the original date of Final Approval Hearing

v.

IMAGINE 360, LLC,

JOINT DECLARATION OF CLASS COUNSEL IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS SETTLEMENT AND APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS, AND SERVICE AWARD

We, Jeff Ostrow and Nicholas Colella, pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 95.525, hereby declare as follows:

1. We are the Court-appointed Class Counsel¹ for the Settlement Class in this Action. We submit this declaration in support of Plaintiff's Unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement and Class Counsels' Application for Award of Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award. Unless otherwise noted, we have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this declaration and could and would testify competently to them if called upon to do so.

2. Plaintiff and Class Counsel now move the Court for Final Approval and apply for attorneys' fees and costs and for a Service Award for the Class Representative. The Settlement meets all the criteria for Final Approval. As of the date of the filing of this motion, there have been no objections, and no Settlement Class members have opted-out. This overwhelmingly positive response from the Settlement Class affirms the Court's initial conclusion at the Preliminary Approval stage that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

3. The Parties' counsel have fully evaluated the strengths, weaknesses, and equities of the Parties' respective positions and believe the proposed Settlement fairly resolves their respective differences.

Background

4. On February 19, 2025, Plaintiff filed his Complaint in this Action against Defendant, asserting several causes of action related to the Data Incident.

5. After careful investigation of the underlying facts of the Action, the Parties decided to conserve resources for the benefit of the Settlement Class and to focus their efforts on early resolution.

6. To that end, they began discussing settlement, and with the initial assistance of a mediator, were able to reach an agreement in principle on the material terms of the Settlement which were then memorialized in the Settlement Agreement.

7. In advance of the mediation, Plaintiff consulted with their damage and liability experts, propounded informal discovery requests on Defendant to which Defendant responded by providing information related to, among other things, the nature and cause of the Data Incident, the number and geographic location of victims impacted by the Data Incident, and the specific type of information breached.

8. The Action settled after a thorough exchange of informal discovery, between parties that litigated the same issues in parallel in federal court.

9. Based upon Class Counsel's experience, this was an appropriate time to negotiate a classwide settlement.

10. After the Parties agreed on all material terms of the Settlement, they discussed attorneys' fees, costs, and Service Award. The Parties agreed that Class Counsel would request up to 35% of the Settlement Fund for attorneys, fees, as well as reimbursement of litigation costs.

Facts Supporting Final Approval and Class Certification

11. This Action raised issues of genuine importance to approximately 100,000 employees of Defendant's clients who were affected by the Data Incident. Because of the significant risks associated with this Action and potential barriers faced by the Plaintiff, Class Counsel achieved a solid recovery for the Settlement Class that included $475,000.00 in monetary relief as well as nonmonetary relief in the form of security enhancements, which are at the expense of the Defendant and will not come out of the Settlement Fund.

12. This amount is well within the range of other recent data breach settlements when you compare the size of the class and benefits obtained.

13. The Settlement will provide certain, substantial, and immediate relief to the Settlement Class. It ensures that Settlement Class Members with Valid Claims will receive guaranteed compensation now, provides Settlement Class Members with access to Settlement Class Member Benefits that may not have been available at trial, and confirms Defendant has taken security measures to protect Settlement Class member's data that may remain in its possession.

14. Class Counsel vigorously advocated for the Settlement Class members in this Action and believe the Settlement is in the best interest of the Settlement Class.

15. With over 100,000 members of the Settlement Class, it would be impossible and/or impractical to (i) separately join each member of the Settlement Class in the Action or (ii) have each of the Settlement Class member file suit and move to consolidate their suits into this Action concerning the same legal issues.

16. While Plaintiff and Class Counsel firmly believe Plaintiff's claims would have resulted in class certification and favorable adjudication on the merits, Plaintiff faced significant risks should he have continued to litigate the Action, which include Defendant successfully: (i) moving for dismissal of Plaintiff's claims; (ii) opposing class certification; (iii) appealing a class certification order; (iv) prevailing on a post-certification summary judgment motion; (v) prevailing at trial; or (vi) appealing a post-certification summary judgment or post-trial judgment.

17. Moreover, even if a litigation class were certified and prevailed on the merits, it would still take years to litigate the Action through trial and the various appeals (e.g., the class certification order and final judgment).

18. The Settlement eliminates all of those risks and the years of delays by getting the Settlement Class members their money and the non-monetary security enhancements now.

19. While Plaintiff disputes Defendant's arguments, it was unclear how the arguments would be resolved. Thus, there was a substantial risk that Settlement Class members could receive nothing at all.

20. The risk of establishing damages in this Action was not insignificant. Indeed, there was no assurance that a jury or the Court would have found in favor of the Settlement Class and awarded the full amounts claimed as owed.

21. Indeed, the Settlement is a solid result, given the complexity of the Action and the significant barriers that would loom in the absence of settlement.

22. The Settlement Class fully endorses and supports the Settlement. Following the successful Notice Program discussed herein, the Settlement Class had ample opportunity to opt-out or object to the Settlement. As of the date of the filing of this motion, no Settlement Class members have opted-out or objected.

23. The deadline to opt-out from the Settlement or to object is 30 days before the Final Approval Hearing. Should any objections be timely filed, Class Counsel will notify the Court the Court before Final Approval Hearing. The same is true if anyone opts-out.

24. In sum, the Settlement Class Member Benefits are fair, reasonable, and adequate in light of Defendant's defenses, and the challenging and unpredictable path of litigation Plaintiff would have faced absent a settlement.

25. The Class Representative has expended time and effort and took on significant risks for the benefit of the putative class as a whole, imposing a burden on him out of proportion to his individual stake in the matter. He has zealously litigated his claims, secured substantial relief, and has no interests antagonistic to the Settlement Class.

26. Further, Class Counsel are highly qualified and have a great deal of experience litigating consumer class actions, including in the data privacy context.

27. Resolution of thousands of claims in one action is far superior to individual lawsuits because it promotes consistency and efficiency of adjudication. Given the small value of their individual claims, and their support for the Settlement, it can be inferred that Settlement Class members are not interested in prosecuting their own claims. Class Counsel is unaware of any other litigation against Defendant arising from the Data Incident. It is desirable to litigate the claims in this Court given Defendant's substantial business activity in Florida, and because the causes of action accrued in Florida, and manageability is no concern in the context of class settlement approval.

28. Based on the foregoing, it is Class Counsel's well-informed opinion that, given the uncertainty and further substantial risk and expense of pursuing the Action through contested dispositive motions, class certification proceedings, trial, and appeal, the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class.

Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award

29. Class Counsel also respectfully requests the Court award $166,250 in attorneys' fees, which represents 35% of the Settlement Fund.

30. Class Counsel's request is consistent with Florida's standard for awarding attorneys' fees in common fund class action settlements, analyzing Class Counsel's lodestar and applying a contingency risk multiplier. For the reasons set forth below, the requested attorneys' fees are more than reasonable when compared to the time and effort devoted to the prosecution of the Action and the results achieved through the Settlement.

31. Further, Class Counsel seeks reimbursement of $7,915.04 in litigation costs. These costs were reasonably and necessarily incurred in an effort to effectively litigate Plaintiff's claims and negotiate and execute the Settlement Agreement.

32. Plaintiff respectfully requests a $2,000.00 Service Award to compensate him for his work in filing the Action and facing the risks associated with serving as a Class Representative.

33. In prosecuting this action, the Class Representative expended time and effort and took significant financial and reputational risks for the benefit of the putative class as a whole, thus, imposing a burden on him out of proportion to his individual stake in the matter.

34. The Class Representative has actively followed this matter even prior to the complaint being filed in this matter and has made significant efforts on behalf of the Settlement Class, including maintaining contact with Class Counsel, participating in client interviews, providing relevant documents, assisting in the investigation of the Action, remaining available for consultation throughout settlement negotiations, reviewing relevant pleadings and the Agreement, and for answering Class Counsel's many questions. The requested Service Award is justified in light of the Class Representative's willingness to devote his time and energy to prosecuting this Action and is reasonable in consideration of the overall benefit conferred on the Settlement Class and should be approved.

35. The financial risks borne by Class Counsel fully support the fee requested.

36. As of the date of the filing of the Motion for Final Approval, Class Counsel has received no objections to the proposed attorneys' fees, costs, or Service Award (the amounts of which were made known to the Settlement Class via the Court-approved Notice Program) in particular.

37. Class Counsel prosecuted this Action on a purely contingent basis. As such, Class Counsel have not received any compensation for their extensive efforts or been reimbursed for litigation costs incurred, and have assumed a significant risk of nonpayment or underpayment. The nature of contingency fees is that they are inherently uncertain and require counsel to assume more risk than in cases where compensation is based on billable hours.

38. This matter has required Class Counsel to spend considerable time on this Action that could have been spent on other matters. At various times during the litigation of this Action, this lawsuit has consumed significant amounts of Class Counsel's time.

39. Prosecuting and settling the Action demanded considerable time, labor, and skill. Class Counsel's work on this matter includes: investigating the cause and effects of alleged unlawful sharing of Plaintiff's and Settlement Class members' Personal Information, interviewing potential clients, evaluating the potential class representative, contributing to the evaluation of the merits of the Action before filing the Complaint; conducting legal research; drafting the Complaint, working with experts, litigating the parallel multi-district action in federal court, drafting the settlement term sheet, the Agreement, the Notice, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, including Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award; communicating with Defendant Counsel, preparing document and information requests for Defendant as part of informal discovery; engaging in extensive settlement negotiations with Defendant; and providing updates to and handling questions from our Class Representative. Class Counsel were mindful to avoid duplicative efforts among themselves.

40. Indeed, Class Counsel's skill and experience in complex class action litigation weigh in favor of the requested attorneys' fee award. Class Counsel's background and the background of the supporting attorneys and staff demonstrate that Class Counsel is experienced in the highly specialized field of class action litigation – particularly data breach class action litigation – and are well-credentialed and equal to the difficult and novel tasks at hand.

41. This Action has required substantial time and labor from the attorneys.

42. Accepting a putative class action of this difficulty and magnitude with thousands of putative class members, and the inherent and substantial risk involved, substantially impeded Class Counsel's ability to work on other fee-generating and/or lower risk cases from the time the Action was being investigated throughout the litigation.

43. With respect to demands imposed by the client, the representation of the Settlement Class does not end with Final Approval of the Settlement.

44. Ultimately, Class Counsel are responsible for seeing that the terms of the Settlement are followed, which will involve a substantial time commitment.

45. Class Counsel's lodestar (hours x hourly rates), through June 26, 2025, is $129,900.00, broken down by firm as follows:

a. Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A. – 87,900.00

b. Lynch Carpenter LLP - $42,440.00

46. The requested fee is fair in view of the complicated nature of the Action, and the time, effort, and skill required. The financial risks borne by Class Counsel fully support the fee requested.

47. Class Counsel request a 1.30 which is justified in light of the fact that Class Counsel rendered service without compensation, achieved an excellent result, and offered extremely reasonable billing rates given their experience. The requested fee is fair in view of the complicated nature of the Action, and the time, effort, and skill required.

48. In total, Class Counsel spent 143.9 hours on this Action, including the work of attorneys, paralegals, and law clerks, as further explained below. This amount does not include an estimated 25 hours that Class Counsel will spend preparing for and attending the Final Approval Hearing and assisting the Settlement Administrator following Final Approval. This additional time will result in an even lower multiplier.

49. Class Counsel and the Plaintiff have had a relationship since before filing the complaint in this action and will continue to work with one another for a few more months, including time after Final Approval. The investigation, prosecution, and settlement of this Action has required a substantial amount of Class Counsel's time and effort. Class Counsel spent significant time working with the Plaintiff—investigating the Action and keeping him informed of the progress of the Action.

50. The time spent on this Action could otherwise have been spent on other fee-generating work. Because Class Counsel undertook representation of this matter on a contingency-fee basis, we shouldered the risk of expending substantial costs and time in litigating the action without any monetary gain in the event of an adverse judgment.

51. If not devoted to litigating this Action, from which any remuneration is wholly contingent on a successful outcome, the time our firms spent working on this Action could and would have been spent pursuing other fee-generating and/or lower risk cases from the time the Action was being investigated throughout the litigation.

52. Litigation is inherently unpredictable and therefore risky. Here, that risk was very real, due to the rapidly evolving nature of case law pertaining to data privacy matters, and the state of data privacy law. Therefore, despite Class Counsel's devotion to the Action and our confidence in the claims alleged against Defendant, there have been many factors beyond our control that posed significant risks.

53. Class Counsel have significant and unique legal experience in the litigation, certification, trial, and settlement of consumer class action litigation, and data breach litigation specifically. They submitted their resumes in support of the Motion for Preliminary Approval. There are few, if any, firms in the nation with the expertise of Class Counsel in these types of cases. Class Counsel has collectively recovered billions of dollars for the classes they represented in hundreds of cases. In negotiating this Settlement, Class Counsel had the benefit of years of experience and a familiarity with the facts of this Action as well as with other data breach cases.

54. The hourly rates charged by Class Counsel range from $700.00 to $1000.00 per hour for attorneys and $150.00 to $2250.00 per hour for paralegals and law clerks.

55. These hourly rates are within the range of hourly rates that have been approved by Florida courts and elsewhere in the United States for legal services in class actions of a similar nature, considering the type of matter, level of experience, training, and education. Courts around the country have approved these rates.

56. Additionally, Class Counsel incurred the following costs, which were reasonably and necessarily incurred for the prosecution of this Action, totaling $7,915.04.

- a. $415.04 - Filing Fees

- b. $2,500.00 - Mediation Fees
- c. $5,000.00 - Expert Fees

Cost receipts will be submitted to the Court should it likewise so require.

57. Continuing through today, Class Counsel has worked with Defendant and the Settlement Administrator regarding the Notice Program and Claims administration and processing, as well as answering questions from Settlement Class members about the Settlement and the process. The campaign was highly effective as it increased the overall Settlement Class Member reach rate.

appeared in 53 languages and been distributed in almost every country, territory, and dependency in the world. Courts have recognized and approved numerous notice plans developed by Epiq Legal Noticing, and those decisions have invariably withstood appellate review.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

5. I have served as a notice expert and have been recognized and appointed by courts to design and provide notice in many significant cases, including:

a) In re Juul Labs, Inc. Marketing, Sales Practices, and Products Liability Litigation 19-md-02913 (N.D. Cal.), involved two settlements totaling $300 million for JUUL Labs, Inc. and Altria, which alleged consumers were misled about JUUL products' addictiveness and safety, causing them to pay more, and that JUUL products were unlawfully marketed to minors. Two companion notice programs were implemented with more than 10.7 million email notices and nearly 500,000 postcard notices sent to potential class members and comprehensive media efforts (over 936 million impressions delivered). The notice programs each reached approximately 80% of the class nationwide.

b) In Re: Zoom Video Communications, Inc. Privacy Litigation, 3:20-cv-02155 (N.D. Cal.), involved an extensive notice plan for a $85 million privacy settlement involving Zoom, the most popular videoconferencing platform. Notice was sent to more than 158 million class members by email or mail, and millions of reminder notices were sent to stimulate claim filings. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 91% of the class. A supplemental media campaign provided notice via regional newspaper notice, nationally distributed digital and social media notice (delivering more than 280 million impressions), sponsored search, an informational release, and a settlement website.

c) In re Takata Airbag Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 2599, 1:15-md-02599 (S.D. Fla.), involved $1.91 billion in settlements with BMW, Mazda, Subaru, Toyota, Honda, Nissan, Ford, and Volkswagen regarding Takata airbags. The notice programs included individual mailed notice to more than 61.8 million potential class members and extensive nationwide media via consumer publications, U.S. Territory newspapers, radio, digital notices, mobile digital notices, and behaviorally targeted digital media. Combined, the notice programs reached more than 95% of adults aged 18+ in the U.S. who owned or leased a subject vehicle, with a frequency of 4.0 times each.

d) In Re: Capital One Consumer Data Security Breach Litigation, MDL No. 2915, 1:19-md-02915 (E.D. Va.), involved an extensive notice program for a $190 million data breach settlement. Notice was sent to more than 93.6 million settlement class members by email or mail. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 96% of the identified settlement class members and were enhanced by a supplemental media plan that included digital and social media notices (delivering more than 123.4 million impressions), sponsored search, and a settlement website.

e) In re: Disposable Contact Lens Antitrust Litigation, 3:15-md-02626 (M.D. Fla.), involved several notice programs to notify retail purchasers of disposable contact lenses for four separate settlements totaling $88 million. For each notice program more than 1.98 million email or postcard notices were sent to potential class members and a comprehensive media plan was implemented, with a well-read nationwide consumer publication, internet digital notices (delivering more than 312.9 million – 461.4 million impressions per campaign), sponsored search listings, and a case website.

f) In re U.S. Office of Personnel Management Data Security Breach Litigation MDL No. 2664, 15-cv-01394 (D.D.C.), involved a $63 million settlement for compromised personal information of then-current and former federal government employees and contractors, and certain applicants for federal employment. An extensive nationwide media notice campaign was implemented using magazines, digital and social media notices (delivering more than 758 million impressions), traditional and satellite radio, and other forms of media. The media notice reached at least 85% of the class. In addition, more than 3.5 million email notices and/or postcard notices were sent to identified class members. The notice program was supplemented with outreach to unions and associations, sponsored search listings, an informational release, and a settlement website.

g) In re: fairlife Milk Products Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation, 1:19-cv-03924 (N.D. Ill.), involved a $21 million settlement against The Coca-Cola Company, fairlife, LLC, and other defendants alleging false labeling and marketing of fairlife milk products. A comprehensive media plan was implemented with a consumer print publication notice, targeted digital and social media notices (delivering more than 620.1 million impressions in English and Spanish nationwide). Combined with individual notice to a small percentage of the class, the notice plan reached approximately 80.2% of the class. The reach was further enhanced by sponsored search, an informational release, and a website.

h) In re: Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1720 (E.D.N.Y.). Second Circuit affirmed. See Fikes Wholesale, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc. 62 F.4th 704 (2d Cir. 2023). The case involved a $5.5 billion settlement reached by Visa and MasterCard. An intensive initial notice program included more than 19.8 million direct mail notices sent to potential class members, together with insertions in over 1,500 newspapers, consumer magazines, national business publications, trade and specialty publications, with notices in multiple languages, and a digital notice campaign (delivering more than 770 million adult impressions). Sponsored search listings and a settlement website in eight languages expanded the notice program. For the subsequent settlement reached by Visa and MasterCard, an extensive notice program was implemented, which included over 16.3 million direct mail notices to class members together with more than 354 print publication insertions and digital notices (delivering more than 689 million adult impressions).

i) In re: Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010, MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.), involved landmark settlement notice programs to distinct "Economic and Property Damages" and "Medical Benefits" settlement classes for BP's $7.8 billion settlement of claims related to the Deepwater Horizon oil spill. Notice efforts included more than 7,900 television spots, 5,200 radio spots, and 5,400 print insertions and reached over 95% of Gulf Coast residents.

6. I have served as a notice expert and have been recognized and appointed by courts to design and provide notice in numerous data breach and privacy settlements, including:

7. Courts have recognized our testimony as to which method of notification is appropriate for a given case, and I have provided testimony on numerous occasions on whether a certain method of notice represents the best notice practicable under the circumstances. Numerous court opinions and comments regarding my testimony, and the adequacy of our notice efforts, are included in the Epiq Legal Noticing curriculum vitae included as Attachment 1.

8. In forming expert opinions, my team and I draw from our in-depth class action case experience, as well as our educational and related work experiences. I am an active member of the Oregon State Bar, having received my Bachelor of Science from Willamette University and my Juris Doctor from Northwestern School of Law at Lewis and Clark College. I have served as the Director of Legal Notice for Epiq since 2008 and have overseen the detailed planning of virtually all of our court-approved notice programs during that time. Overall, I have more than 25 years of experience in the design and implementation of legal notification and claims administration programs, having been personally involved in hundreds of successful notice programs.

9. The facts in this declaration are based on my personal knowledge, as well as information provided to me by my colleagues in the ordinary course of my business at Epiq and Epiq Legal Noticing (hereinafter “Epiq”).

OVERVIEW

10. This declaration describes the successful implementation of the Settlement Notice Program (“Notice Program”) and Notices (the “Notice” or “Notices”) for Collins v. Imagine360, LLC, Case No. CACE-25-002370 in the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit for Broward County, Florida. Epiq designed this Notice Program based on our extensive prior experience and research into the notice issues particular to this case. We designed and implemented a notice program that was directed by the Court under the circumstances to provide notice to the Settlement Class members.

NOTICE PROGRAM SUMMARY

18. Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.220 directs that, "notice shall be given to each member of the class who can be identified and located through reasonable effort and shall be given to the other members of the class in the manner determined by the court to be most practicable under the circumstances."¹ The Notice Program as implemented satisfied these requirements.

19. The Notice Program as designed and implemented reached the greatest practicable number of identified Settlement Class members with individual notice. With the address updating protocols that were used, the Notice Program individual notice efforts reached approximately 94.6% of the identified Settlement Class members. The reach was further enhanced by a Settlement Website. In my experience, the reach of the Notice Program was consistent with other court-approved notice plans, was the best method practicable under the circumstances, and satisfied the requirements of due process, including its "desire to actually inform" requirement.²

² Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950) ("But when notice is a person's due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it. The reasonableness and hence the constitutional validity of any chosen method may be defended on the ground that it is in itself reasonably certain to inform those affected . . .").

NOTICE PROGRAM DETAIL

20. On March 20, 2025, the Court approved the Notice Program and appointed Epiq as the Settlement Administrator in the Order Granting Plaintiff's Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement ("Preliminary Approval Order"). In the Preliminary Approval Order, the Court approved and certified, for settlement purposes, the following Settlement Class:

All living individuals residing in the United States who were sent a notice by Defendant that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.³

Excluded from the Settlement Class are: (a) all persons who are employees, directors, officers, and agents of Defendant; (b) governmental entities; and (c) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge's immediate family, and Court staff.

21. After the Court's Preliminary Approval Order was entered, Epiq implemented the Notice Program. This declaration details the notice activities undertaken to date and explains how and why the Notice Program was comprehensive and well-suited to reach the Settlement Class members. This declaration also discusses the administration activity to date.

Individual Notice

22. On March 27, 2025, Epiq received one data file containing 106,087 records for identified Settlement Class members, including names and postal addresses, if available. Epiq deduplicated and rolled-up the records and loaded the unique, identified Settlement Class member records into its database. These efforts resulted in 104,018 unique, identified Settlement Class member records. A Postcard Notice was sent via United States Postal Service ("USPS") first-class mail to all identified Settlement Class members with an associated physical address.

Individual Notice – Direct Mail

23. On April 18, 2025, Epiq commenced sending 103,989 Postcard Notices to identified Settlement Class members for whom an associated physical mailing address was available (29 records had incomplete or invalid addresses and were not sent a Postcard Notice). The Postcard Notices were sent via USPS first-class mail. The Postcard Notices clearly and concisely described the Settlement and the legal rights of the Settlement Class members. Additionally, the Postcard Notices directed Settlement Class members to visit the Settlement Website for additional information. The Postcard Notice is included as Attachment 2.

24. Prior to sending the Postcard Notices, all mailing addresses were checked against the National Change of Address (“NCOA”) database maintained by the USPS to ensure all address information was up-to-date and accurately formatted for mailing.⁴ In addition, the addresses were certified via the Coding Accuracy Support System (“CASS”) to ensure the quality of the zip code and verified through Delivery Point Validation (“DPV”) to verify the accuracy of the addresses. This address updating process is standard for the industry and for the majority of promotional mailings that occur today.

25. The return address on the Postcard Notices is a post office box that Epiq maintains for this case. The USPS automatically forwards Postcard Notices with an available forwarding address order that has not expired (“Postal Forwards”). Postcard Notices returned as undeliverable are re-mailed to any new address available through USPS information, (for example, to the address provided by the USPS on returned mail pieces for which the automatic forwarding order has expired but is still within the time period in which the USPS returned the piece with the address indicated), or to better addresses that are found using a third-party address lookup service. Upon successfully locating better addresses, Postcard Notices are promptly remailed. As of June 23, 2025, Epiq has remailed 10,355 Postcard Notices.

⁴ The NCOA database is maintained by the USPS and consists of approximately 160 million permanent change-of-address (COA) records consisting of names and addresses of individuals, families, and businesses who have filed a change-of-address with the Postal Service™. The address information is maintained on the database for 48 months and reduces undeliverable mail by providing the most current address information, including standardized and delivery-point-coded addresses, for matches made to the NCOA file for individual, family, and business moves.

26. Additionally, a Long Form Notice and/or Claim Form were mailed to all persons who requested one via the toll-free telephone number or other means. As of June 23, 2025, Epiq mailed 105 Long Form Notices and 43 Claim Forms as a result of such requests. The Long Form Notice is included as Attachment 3. The Claim Form is included as Attachment 4.

Notice Results

27. As of June 23, 2025, a Postcard Notice was delivered to 98,446 of the 104,018 unique, identified Settlement Class members. This means the individual notice efforts reached approximately 94.6% of the identified Settlement Class members.

Settlement Website

28. On April 18, 2025, Epiq established a dedicated website for the Settlement with an easy to remember domain name (www.Imagine360DataSettlement.com). The Settlement Website allows Settlement Class members to obtain detailed information about the case and review relevant documents, including the Long Form Notice, Claim Form, Preliminary Approval Order, Settlement Agreement, , and other case-related documents. In addition, the Settlement Website includes relevant dates, answers to frequently asked questions (“FAQs”), instructions for how Settlement Class members are able to opt-out (request exclusion) from or object to the Settlement, contact information for the Settlement Administrator, and how to obtain other case-related information. Settlement Class Members are also able to submit a Claim Form on the Settlement Website prior to the Claim Form Deadline. The Settlement Website address was prominently displayed in all notice documents. As of June 23, 2025, there have been 6,295 unique visitor sessions to the Settlement Website, and 27,109 web pages have been presented.

Toll-Free Telephone Number

29. On April 18, 2025, a toll-free telephone number (1-888-836-1042) was established for the Settlement. Settlement Class members who call are able to hear an introductory message, have the option to learn more about the Settlement in the form of recorded answers to FAQs, and request that a Long Form Notice and/or Claim Form be mailed to them. This automated telephone system is available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. The toll-free telephone number was prominently displayed in all notice documents. As of June 23, 2025, there have been 514 calls to the toll-free telephone number representing 1,358 minutes of use.

30. A postal mailing address was established and continues to be available to allow Settlement Class members to contact the Settlement Administrator to request additional information or ask questions.

Requests to Opt-Out and Objections

31. The deadline to opt-out or object is July 16, 2025. As of June 23, 2025, Epiq has received no requests for exclusion. As of June 23, 2025, Epiq is aware of no objections to the Settlement.

Claim Submissions and Distribution Options

32. The Notices provided a detailed summary of the relevant information about the Settlement, including the Settlement Website address and how Settlement Class Members can submit a Claim Form online or by mail prior to the Claim Form Deadline.

33. The deadline for Settlement Class Members to submit a Claim Form is July 31, 2025. As of June 23, 2025, Epiq has received 3,137 Claim Forms (2,907 online and 230 paper). Of the 3,137 Claims Forms received, the following table provides additional details regarding the eligible benefits that have been claimed.

Claim Detail	Claim Count⁵	Value
Cash Payment A – Documented Losses ⁶	8	$30,695.36
Cash Payment B – Flat Cash ⁷	2,890	$216,750.00

⁵ Settlement Class Members may submit a claim for more than one Settlement remedy as applicable. These stats indicate the number of Claim Forms received and processed to date and are still undergoing final review.

⁶ Settlement Class Members may submit a claim for Documented Losses with reasonable documentation for up to $5,000.00 per Settlement Class Member.

⁷ Instead of Cash Payment A, Settlement Class Members may submit a claim for Flat Cash without documentation in an estimated amount of $75.00 per Settlement Class Member.

Claim Detail	Claim Count ⁵	Value
Credit Monitoring ⁸	1,566	n/a
Total Amount Claimed	n/a	$247,445.36

34. Since the Claim Form Deadline has not yet passed, these numbers are preliminary. As standard practice, Epiq is in the process of conducting a complete quality control review of Claim Forms received. There is a likelihood that after detailed review, the total number of Claim Forms received will change due to duplicate and denied Claim Forms.

COSTS OF NOTICE AND ADMINISTRATION

35. The combined cost to implement the Notice Program and handle the settlement administration to date is $72,779.88. The estimated additional cost that will be incurred following the Final Approval Hearing to complete the settlement administration is $28,729.12. All costs are subject to the Service Contract under which Epiq is retained as the Settlement Administrator, and the terms and conditions of that agreement.

PLAIN LANGUAGE NOTICE AND CLAIM FORM DESIGN

36. The Notices were designed to be “noticed” and reviewed by Settlement Class members, and the Notices and Claim Form were written in plain language so the Notices were understood by Settlement Class members. The design of the Notices followed the principles embodied in the Federal Judicial Center’s (“FJC”) illustrative “model” notices posted at www.fjc.gov. Many courts, and the FJC itself, have approved notices that Epiq’s noticing experts have written and designed in a similar fashion. The Notices contained substantial, albeit easy-to-read, summaries of all of the key information about Settlement Class members’ rights and options. Consistent with our normal practice, all notice documents underwent a final edit for grammatical errors and accuracy.

⁸ In addition to Cash Payment A or Cash Payment B, Settlement Class Members are also eligible to submit a Claim Form to receive three years of free Credit Monitoring.

37. The Notices were designed to increase noticeability and comprehension. Once people “notice” the Notices, it is critical that they can understand them. As such, the Notices, as written, were clearly worded with an emphasis on simple, plain language to encourage readership and comprehension.

38. The Notices featured a prominent headline in bold text. These design elements alerted recipients and readers that the Notice is an important document authorized by a court and that the content may have affected them, thereby supplying reasons to read the Notice.

39. The Long Form Notice provided substantial information to Settlement Class members. It began with a summary page, which provided a concise overview of the important information and a table, which highlighted key options available to Settlement Class members. A question-and-answer format made it easy to find answers to common questions by breaking the information into simple headings.

CONCLUSION

40. In class action notice planning, execution, and analysis, we are guided by due process considerations under the United States Constitution, by state and local rules and statutes, and further by case law pertaining to notice. This framework directs that the notice program be designed to reach the greatest practicable number of potential settlement class members and, in a settlement class action notice situation such as this, that the notice or notice plan itself not limit knowledge of the availability of benefits—nor the ability to exercise other options—to settlement class members in any way. All of these requirements were met in this case.

41. The Notice Program included individual notice via USPS first-class mail to identified Settlement Class members. With the address updating protocols that were used, the Notice Program individual notice efforts reached approximately 94.6% of the identified Settlement Class members. The reach was further enhanced by the Settlement Website. In 2010, the FJC issued a Judges’ Class Action Notice and Claims Process Checklist and Plain Language Guide, which is relied upon for federal cases, and is illustrative for state court. This guide states that, “the lynchpin in an objective determination of the adequacy of a proposed notice effort is whether all the notice efforts together will reach a high percentage of the class. It is reasonable to reach between 70–95%.⁹ Here, we have developed and implemented a Notice Program that readily achieved a reach at the high end of that standard.

42. The Notice Program followed the guidance for satisfying due process obligations that a notice expert gleaned from the United States Supreme Court’s seminal decisions, which emphasize the need: (a) to endeavor to actually inform the Settlement Class, and (b) to ensure that notice is reasonably calculated to do so:

- a) “[W]hen notice is a person’s due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it,” Mullane v. Central Hanover Trust, 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950); and
- b) “[N]otice must be reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections,” Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156 (1974) (citing Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314).

43. The Notice Program conformed to all aspects of Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.220 regarding notice and comported with the guidance for effective notice set out in the Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth.

44. The Notice Program schedule afforded sufficient time to provide full and proper notice to Settlement Class members before the Opt-Out Period and Objection Period.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on June 25, 2025, at Beaverton, Oregon.

Judge Lucy H. Koh, Grace v. Apple, Inc. (Mar. 31, 2021) 17-cv-00551 (N.D. Cal.):

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) requires that the settling parties provide class members with “the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice must clearly and concisely state in plain, easily understood language: (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the class certified; (iii) the class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a class judgment on members under Rule 23(c)(3).” The Court finds that the Notice Plan, which was direct notice sent to 99.8% of the Settlement Class via email and U.S. Mail, has been implemented in compliance with this Court’s Order (ECF No. 426) and complies with Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge Gary A. Fenner, In re Pre-Filled Propane Tank Antitrust Litigation (Mar. 30, 2021) MDL No. 2567, 14-cv-02567 (W.D. Mo.):

That Declaration shows that there have been no requests for exclusion from the Settlement, and no objections to the Settlement. Finally, the Declaration reflects that AmeriGas has given appropriate notice of this settlement to the Attorney General of the United States and the appropriate State officials under the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and no objections have been received from any of them.

Judge James D. Peterson, Fox et al. v. Iowa Health System d.b.a. UnityPoint Health (Mar. 4, 2021) 18-cv-00327 (W.D. Wis.):

The approved Notice plan provided for direct mail notice to all class members at their last known address according to UnityPoint’s records, as updated by the administrator through the U.S. Postal Service. For postcards returned undeliverable, the administrator tried to find updated addresses for those class members. The administrator maintained the Settlement website and made Spanish versions of the Long Form Notice and Claim Form available upon request. Moreover, plaintiffs have submitted [a] declaration from Cameron Azari, a nationally recognized notice expert, who attests that fashioning an effective joint notice is not unworkable or unduly confusing. Azari also provides a detailed analysis of how he would approach fashioning an effective notice in this case.

Judge Carl J. Barbier, In re Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010 (Medical Benefits Settlement) (Jan. 11, 2013) MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.):

Through August 9, 2012, 366,242 individual notices had been sent to potential [Medical Benefits] Settlement Class Members by postal mail and 56,136 individual notices had been e-mailed. Only 10,700 mailings—or 3.3%—were known to be undeliverable. (Azari Decl. ¶¶ 8, 9.) Notice was also provided through an extensive schedule of local newspaper, radio, television and Internet placements, well-read consumer magazines, a national daily business newspaper, highly-trafficked websites, and Sunday local newspapers (via newspaper supplements). Notice was also provided in non-measured trade, business and specialty publications, African-American, Vietnamese, and Spanish language publications, and Cajun radio programming. The combined measurable paid print, television, radio, and Internet effort reached an estimated 95% of adults aged 18+ in the Gulf Coast region an average of 10.3 times each, and an estimated 83% of all adults in the United States aged 18+ an average of 4 times each. (Id. ¶¶ 8, 10.) All notice documents were designed to be clear, substantive, and informative. (Id. ¶ 5.)

The Court received no objections to the scope or content of the [Medical Benefits] Notice Program. (Azari Supp. Decl. ¶ 12.) The Court finds that the Notice and Notice Plan as implemented satisfied the best notice practicable standard of Rule 23(c) and, in accordance with Rule 23(e)(1), provided notice in a reasonable manner to Class Members who would be bound by the Settlement, including individual notice to all Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort. Likewise, the Notice and Notice Plan satisfied the requirements of Due Process. The Court also finds the Notice and Notice Plan satisfied the requirements of CAFA.

Judge Carl J. Barbier, In re Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010 (Economic and Property Damages Settlement) (Dec. 21, 2012) MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice and Class Notice Plan satisfied and continue to satisfy the applicable requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(b) and 23(e), the Class Action Fairness Act (28 U.S.C. § 1711 et seq.), and the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution (U.S. Const., amend. V), constituting the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances of this litigation. The notice program surpassed the requirements of Due Process, Rule 23, and CAFA. Based on the factual elements of the Notice Program as detailed below, the Notice Program surpassed all of the requirements of Due Process, Rule 23, and CAFA.

The Notice Program, as duly implemented, surpasses other notice programs ... executed with court approval. The Notice Program included notification to known or potential Class Members via postal mail and e-mail; an extensive schedule of local newspaper, radio, television and Internet placements, well-read consumer magazines, a national daily business newspaper, and Sunday local newspapers. Notice placements also appeared in non-measured trade, business, and specialty publications, African-American, Vietnamese, and Spanish language publications, and Cajun radio programming. The Notice Program met the objective of reaching the greatest possible number of class members and providing them with every reasonable opportunity to understand their legal rights. See Azari Decl. ¶¶ 8, 15, 68. The Notice Program was substantially completed on July 15, 2012, allowing class members adequate time to make decisions before the opt-out and objections deadlines.

The media notice effort alone reached an estimated 95% of adults in the Gulf region an average of 10.3 times each, and an estimated 83% of all adults in the United States an average of 4 times each. These figures do not include notice efforts that cannot be measured, such as advertisements in trade publications and sponsored search engine listings. The Notice Program fairly and adequately covered and notified the class without excluding any demographic group or geographic area, and it exceeded the reach percentage achieved in most other court-approved notice programs.

Judge Alonzo Harris, Opelousas General Hospital Authority, A Public Trust, D/B/A Opelousas General Health System and ArkLamiss Surgery Center, L.L.C. v. FairPay Solutions, Inc. (Aug. 17, 2012) 12-C-1599 (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

Notice given to Class Members and all other interested parties pursuant to this Court's order of April 18, 2012, was reasonably calculated to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Class as Defined for settlement purposes only, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Members rights to be represented by private counsel, at their own costs, and Class Members rights to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford persons or entities within the Class Definition an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Class. Such notice complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the Due Process Clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Class as Defined.

Judge James Lawrence King, Sachar v. Iberiabank Corporation (Apr. 26, 2012) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The Court finds that the Notice previously approved was fully and properly effectuated and was sufficient to satisfy the requirements of due process because it described "the substantive claims ... [and] contained information reasonably necessary to [allow Settlement Class Members to] make a decision to remain a class member and be bound by the final judgment."... The Notice, among other things, defined the Settlement Class, described the release as well as the amount and method and manner of proposed distribution of the Settlement proceeds, and informed Settlement Class Members of their rights to opt-out or object, the procedures for doing so, and the time and place of the Final Approval Hearing. The Notice also informed Settlement Class Members that a class judgment would bind them unless they opted out, and told them where they could obtain more information, such as access to a full copy of the Agreement. Further, the Notice described in summary form the fact that Class Counsel would be seeking attorneys' fees of up to 30 percent of the Settlement. Settlement Class Members were provided with the best practicable notice "reasonably calculated, under [the] circumstances, to apprise them of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314. The content of the Notice fully complied with the requirements of Rule 23.

Judge Bobby Peters, Vereen v. Lowe's Home Centers (Apr. 13, 2012) SU10-cv-2267B (Ga. Super. Ct.):

The Court finds that the Notice and the Notice Plan was fulfilled, in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Amendment, and this Court's Preliminary Approval Order and that this Notice and Notice Plan constituted the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances of this action, constituted due and sufficient Notice of the proposed Settlement to all persons entitled to participate in the proposed Settlement, and was in full compliance with Ga. Code Ann § 9-11-23 and the constitutional requirements of due process. Extensive notice was provided to the class, including point of sale notification, publication notice and notice by first-class mail for certain potential Class Members.

The affidavit of the notice expert conclusively supports this Court's finding that the notice program was adequate, appropriate, and comported with Georgia Code Ann. § 9-11-23(b)(2), the Due Process Clause of the Constitution, and the guidance for effective notice articulate in the FJC's Manual for Complex Litigation, 4th.

Judge Lee Rosenthal, In re Heartland Payment Systems, Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation (Mar. 2, 2012) MDL No. 2046 (S.D. Tex.):

*The notice that has been given clearly complies with Rule 23(e)(1)'s reasonableness requirement... the notice plan after its implementation and conservatively estimated that notice reached 81.4 percent of the class members. (Docket Entry No. 106, ¶ 32). Both the summary notice and the detailed notice provided the information reasonably necessary for the presumptive class members to determine whether to object to the proposed settlement. See Katrina Canal Breaches, 628 F.3d at 197. Both the summary notice and the detailed notice "were written in easy-to-understand plain English." In re Black Farmers Discrimination Litig., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2011 WL 5117058, at *23 (D.D.C. 2011); accord AGGREGATE LITIGATION § 3.04(c).15 The notice provided "satisf[ies] the broad reasonableness standards imposed by due process" and Rule 23. Judge John D. Bates, Trombley v. National City Bank (Dec. 1, 2011) 1:10-cv-00232 (D.D.C.) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft Litigation MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice given to the Settlement Class were in full compliance with the Court's January 11, 2011 Order, the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), and due process. The notice was adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. In addition, adequate notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to participate in the final fairness hearing were provided to the Settlement Class.

Judge Robert M. Dow, Jr., Schulte v. Fifth Third Bank (July 29, 2011) 1:09-cv-06655 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court has reviewed the content of all of the various notices, as well as the manner in which Notice was disseminated, and concludes that the Notice given to the Class fully complied with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, as it was the best notice practicable, satisfied all constitutional due process concerns, and provided the Court with jurisdiction over the absent Class Members.

Judge Ellis J. Daigle, Williams v. Hammerman & Gainer Inc. (June 30, 2011) 11-C-3187-B (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

Notices given to Settlement Class members and all other interested parties throughout this proceeding with respect to the certification of the Settlement Class, the proposed settlement, and all related procedures and hearings—including, without limitation, the notice to putative Settlement Class members and others... were reasonably calculated under all the circumstances and have been sufficient, as to form, content, and manner of dissemination, to apprise interested parties and members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Settlement Class, the Settlement Agreement and its contents, Settlement Class members' right to be represented by private counsel, at their own cost, and Settlement Class members' right to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford Settlement Class members an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class. Such notices complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the due process clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedures, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Settlement Class.

Judge Stefan R. Underhill, Mathena v. Webster Bank, N.A. (Mar. 24, 2011) 3:10-cv-01448 (D. Conn.) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft Litigation MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice given to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process.

Judge Ted Stewart, Miller v. Basic Research, LLC (Sept. 2, 2010) 2:07-cv-00871 (D. Utah):

Plaintiffs state that they have hired a firm specializing in designing and implementing large scale, unbiased, legal notification plans. Plaintiffs represent to the Court that such notice will include: 1) individual notice by electronic mail and/or first-class mail sent to all reasonably identifiable Class members; 2) nationwide paid media notice through a combination of print publications, including newspapers, consumer magazines, newspaper supplements and the Internet; 3) a neutral, Court-approved, informational press release; 4) a neutral, Court-approved Internet website; and 5) a toll-free telephone number. Similar mixed media plans have been approved by other district courts post class certification. The Court finds this plan is sufficient to meet the notice requirement.

Judge Sara Loi, Pavlov v. Continental Casualty Co. (Oct. 7, 2009) 5:07-cv-02580 (N.D. Ohio):

[T]he elaborate notice program contained in the Settlement Agreement provides for notice through a variety of means, including direct mail to each class member, notice to the United States Attorney General and each State, a toll free number, and a website designed to provide information about the settlement and instructions on submitting claims. With a 99.9% effective rate, the Court finds that the notice program constituted the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances,” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B), and clearly satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge James Robertson, In re Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Data Theft Litigation (Sept. 23, 2009) MDL No. 1796 (D.D.C.):

The Notice Plan, as implemented, satisfied the requirements of due process and was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Plan was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the action, the terms of the Settlement, and their right to appear, object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement. Further, the notice was reasonable and constituted due, adequate and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice.

A state court authorized this Notice because you have the right to know about the Settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your rights and options before the Court decides whether to grant final approval to the Settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, your legal rights, what Settlement Class Member Benefits are available, who is eligible for the Settlement Class Member benefits, and how to get them.

The Honorable Hunter Davis of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, Florida is overseeing this class action. The lawsuit is known as Collins v. Imagine360, LLC, Case No. CACE-25-002370 (the “lawsuit”). The individual who filed this lawsuit is called the “Plaintiff” and/or “Class Representative” and the company sued, Imagine360, LLC, is called the “Defendant.”

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The Plaintiff filed this lawsuit against Defendant as a result of the unauthorized access to Settlement Class members’ Private Information in the Data Incident. The Private Information involved in the Data Incident includes names, medical information, health insurance information, and Social Security numbers..

The Plaintiff alleges that on or around January 30, 2023, there was unauthorized access to or acquisition of Settlement Class members’ Private Information when a third party unlawfully infiltrated Defendant’s Citrix file-sharing solution. The Plaintiff brought this lawsuit against Defendant.

Defendant denies the legal claims and denies any wrongdoing or liability. The Court has not made any determination of any wrongdoing by Defendant, or that any law has been violated. Instead, the Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to a settlement to avoid the risk, cost, and time of continuing the lawsuit.

3. Why is there a Settlement?

The Plaintiff and Defendant do not agree about the legal claims made in this lawsuit. The lawsuit has not gone to trial, and the Court has not decided in favor of the Plaintiff or Defendant. Instead, the Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to settle the lawsuit. The Class Representative, Defendant, and their lawyers believe the Settlement is best for the Settlement Class because of the Settlement Class Member Benefits available and the risks and uncertainty associated with continuing the lawsuit.

4. Why is this lawsuit a class action?

In a class action, one or more people (called class representatives) sue on behalf of all people who have similar legal claims. Together, all these people are called a class or class members. One court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those class members who timely exclude themselves (opt-out) from the class.

The Class Representative in this lawsuit is Plaintiff Anthony Collins.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

8. What does this Settlement provide?

If you are a Settlement Class Member and you submit a timely and valid Claim Form, you may be eligible to receive the following Settlement Class Member Benefits:

Cash Payment A – Documented Losses

You may submit a Claim Form with reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident for up to $5,000.00 per Settlement Class Member.

Examples of expenses incurred as a result of the Data Incident, include (without limitation) bank fees, long distance phone charges, cell phone charges (only charged by the minute), data charges (only if charged based on the amount of data used), postage, gasoline for local travel and fees for credit reports, credit monitoring, or other identity theft insurance products purchased between January 30, 2023, and the date of the Claim Form Deadline.

Examples of reasonable documentation include (but are not limited to): telephone records, correspondence including emails, or receipts. Personal certifications, declarations, or affidavits from the Settlement Class Member do not constitute reasonable documentation but may be included to provide clarification, context, or support for other submitted reasonable documentation. You will not be reimbursed for expenses if you have been reimbursed for the same expenses by another source.

If you do not submit reasonable documentation supporting a loss, or if your Claim Form is invalid as determined by the Settlement Administrator, and you do not cure your Claim Form, your Claim Form will be denied and your Claim Form for Cash Payment A will instead be processed as if you elected Cash Payment B.

Cash Payment B – Flat Cash Payment

Instead of selecting Cash Payment A, without having to provide documentation, you may submit a Claim Form to receive a flat cash payment in an estimated amount of $75.00.

Questions? Go to www.Imagine360DataSettlement.com or call 1-888-836-1042

Credit Monitoring Claims

In addition to Cash Payment A or Cash Payment B, you may also submit a Claim Form to receive up to three years of free Credit Monitoring.

Your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata (a legal term meaning equal share) adjustment increase from the Settlement Fund if the amount of timely and valid Claim Forms does not use the entire Net Settlement Fund. Alternatively, if the amount of timely and valid Claim Forms exceeds the amount of the Net Settlement Fund, your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata reduction.

Injunctive Relief: Defendant is implementing additional security measures following the Data Incident.

9. What am I giving up to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits or stay in the Settlement Class?

Unless you exclude yourself (opt-out), you are choosing to remain in the Settlement Class. If the Settlement is approved and becomes final, all Court orders and any judgments will apply to you and legally bind you. You will not be able to sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Released Parties about the legal issues in this lawsuit that are released by this Settlement. The specific rights you are giving up are called “Released Claims.”

10. What are the Released Claims?

Section XIII of the Settlement Agreement describes the Released Claims and the Releases, in necessary legal terminology, so please read these sections carefully. The Settlement Agreement is available at www.Imagine360DataSettlement.com. For questions regarding the Releases or Released Claims and what the language in the Settlement Agreement means, you can also contact Class Counsel listed in Question 19 for free, or you can talk to your own lawyer at your own expense.

EXCLUDE YOURSELF OR OPT-OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT

If you are a Settlement Class member and want to keep any right you may have to sue or continue to sue the Released Parties on your own based about the legal claims in this lawsuit or released by the Released Claims, then you must take steps to get out of the Settlement. This is called excluding yourself from—or “opting-out” of—the Settlement.

14. How do I opt-out of the Settlement?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must mail a written request for exclusion, which includes the following:

- 1) Your name, address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
- 2) Your personal physical signature; and
- 3) A statement that you want to be excluded from the Settlement Class, such as “I hereby request to be excluded from the Settlement Class in the Imagine360 Data Breach Litigation.”

The exclusion request must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator at the following address, and be postmarked by July 16, 2025:

Imagine360 Data Breach Litigation
Settlement Administrator
PO Box 2440
Portland, OR 97208-2440

You cannot opt-out (exclude yourself) by telephone or by email.

“Mass” or “class” requests for exclusion filed by third parties on behalf of a “mass” or “class” of Settlement Class members or multiple Settlement Class members where the opt-out hasn’t been signed by each and every individual Settlement Class member will not be allowed.

15. If I opt-out can I still get anything from the Settlement?

No. If you opt-out, you will not be entitled to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits, and you will not be bound by the Settlement or any judgment in this lawsuit. You can only get Settlement Class Member Benefits if you stay in the Settlement and submit a timely and valid Claim Form.

16. If I do not opt-out, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you opt-out, you give up any right to sue any of the Released Parties for the legal claims this Settlement resolves and Releases relating to the Data Incident, and you will be bound by all the terms of the Settlement and by all proceedings, orders, and judgments in the lawsuit. You must opt-out of this lawsuit to start or continue with your own lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against the Released Parties. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately.

17. How do I tell the Court I do not like the Settlement?

To object, you must file timely written notice with the Court as provided below no later than July 16, 2025, and send by U.S. mail to Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator postmarked by or shipped by private courier (such as Federal Express) by July 16, 2025, stating you object to the Settlement in *Collins v. - 2) All grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection known to you as the objector or your own lawyer;

- 4) The identity of all lawyers representing you in connection with the objection (if any), including any former or current counsel who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards;

To object, you must file timely written notice with the Court as provided below no later than July 16, 2025, and send by U.S. mail to Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator postmarked by or shipped by private courier (such as Federal Express) by July 16, 2025, at the following addresses:

If you do not comply with the requirements for objecting as detailed above, you will waive and forfeit any and all rights you may have to appear separately and/or to object to the Settlement and you will be bound by all the terms of the Settlement and by all proceedings, orders, and judgments in the lawsuit.

18. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you don't like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Opting-out is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you opt-out, you cannot object because you are no longer part of the Settlement.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

19. Do I have a lawyer in the lawsuit?

Yes. The Court has appointed Jeff Ostrow of Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A and Nicholas A. Colella of Lynch Carpenter, LLP as Class Counsel to represent you and the Settlement Class for the purposes of this Settlement. You may hire your own lawyer at your own cost and expense if you want someone other than Class Counsel to represent you in this lawsuit.

20. How will Class Counsel be paid?

Class Counsel will file a motion asking the Court to award the attorneys' fees of up to 35% of the $475,000 Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of costs. Class Counsel will also ask the Court to approve a Service Award for the Class Representative of up to $2,000 for his efforts in achieving the Settlement. If awarded by the Court, the attorneys' fees and costs, and the Service Award will be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Court may award less than these amounts.

Class Counsel's Application for the Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award will be made available on the Settlement Website at www.Imagine360DataSettlement.com after it is filed with the Court.

THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The Court will hold a "Final Approval Hearing" to decide whether to approve the Settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak if you file an objection by the deadline, but you do not have to.

21. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on August 15, 2025, at 10:00 a.m. before the Honorable Hunter Davis at the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, 201 SE 6th St., Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and decide whether to approve the Settlement, Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award.

If there are objections that were filed by the deadline, the Court will consider them. If you file a timely objection, and you would like to speak at the hearing, the Court will also listen to you or your lawyer speak at the hearing, if you so request.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change without further notice to the Settlement Class. The Court may also decide to hold the hearing via video conference or by telephone. You should check the Settlement Website www.Imagine360DataSettlement.com to confirm the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing have not changed.

22. Do I have to attend the Final Approval Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. However, you are welcome to attend at your own expense. If you file an objection, you do not have to attend the Final Approval Hearing to speak about it. As long as you file your written objection by the deadline, the Court will consider it.

23. May I speak at the Final Approval Hearing?

Yes, as long as you do not exclude yourself (opt-out) and you file a timely written objection requesting to speak at the hearing, you can (but do not have to) participate and speak for yourself at the Final Approval Hearing. This is called making an appearance. You can also have your own lawyer speak for you, but you will have to pay for the lawyer yourself.

If you want to appear, or if you want your own lawyer instead of Class Counsel to speak for you at the hearing, you must follow all of the procedures for objecting to the Settlement listed in Question 17 above—and specifically include a statement whether you or your lawyer will appear at the Final Approval Hearing.

EXHIBIT D

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 17TH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR
BROWARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

ANTHONY COLLINS,

CASE NO. CACE25002370

Plaintiff,

v.

IMAGINE 360, LLC,

Defendant.

[PROPOSED] FINAL APPROVAL ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS, AND SERVICE AWARD

WHEREAS, Plaintiff submitted to the Court his Unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Class Settlement Action Settlement and Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award;

WHEREAS, on March 20, 2025, the Court entered its Preliminary Approval Order, which, inter alia: (1) preliminarily approved the Settlement; (2) determined that, for purposes of the Settlement only, the Action should proceed as a class action and certified the Settlement Class; (3) appointed Plaintiff as Class Representative; (4) appointed Jeff Ostrow and Nicholas Colella as Class Counsel; (5) approved the form and manner of Notice and the Notice Program; (6) approved the Claim Process and Claim Form; and (7) set the Final Approval Hearing date;

WHEREAS, thereafter, Notice was provided to the Settlement Class in accordance with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order by direct Postcard Notice, and the Long Form Notice was available to Settlement Class members on the Settlement Website or on request to the Settlement Administrator;

WHEREAS, there were no objections or the Settlement and no Settlement Class Members opted-out of the Settlement;

WHEREAS, on August 15, 2025, the Court held a Final Approval Hearing to determine whether the Settlement was fair, reasonable, and adequate, and to consider settlement Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award;

WHEREAS, based on the foregoing, having considered the papers filed and proceedings held in connection with the Settlement, having considered all of the other files, records, and proceedings in the Action, and being otherwise fully advised,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

1. This Final Approval Order incorporates the definitions in Section II of the Settlement Agreement and all capitalized terms used in this Final Approval Order have the same meanings as set forth in that Agreement, unless otherwise defined herein.

2. The Notice provided to the Settlement Class in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order was the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice of the proceedings and matters set forth therein to all persons entitled to notice. The Notice and Notice Program fully satisfied the requirements of due process, Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.220 and all other applicable law and rules. The Claims Process was fair, and the Claim Form was easy to read and understand.

3. The terms of the Settlement are fair, adequate, and reasonable. In so finding, the Court has considered several factors, including: (1) the complexity and duration of the litigation; (2) the reaction of the class to the settlement; (3) the stage of the proceedings; (4) the risk of establishing liability; (5) the risk of establishing damages; (6) the risk of maintaining a class action; (7) the ability of the defendant to withstand a greater judgment; (8) the reasonableness of the settlement in light of the best recovery; and (9) the range of reasonableness of the settlement in light of all the attendant risks of litigation.

4. Based on the information presented to the Court, the Claim Process has proceeded as ordered and consistent with the Agreement and Preliminary Approval Order. All Settlement Class Members who submitted Valid Claims shall receive their Settlement Class Member Benefits pursuant to the Settlement's terms. All Settlement Class Members who did not submit a Claim, or for whom the Claim is determined to be invalid, shall still be bound by the terms of the Settlement and Releases therein.

5. The distribution plan for Settlement Class Member Benefits proposed by the Parties in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

6. The Class Representative and Class Counsel have fairly and adequately represented and will continue to adequately represent and protect the interests of Settlement Class Members in connection with the Settlement.

7. Because the Court grants Final Approval of the Settlement set forth in the Agreement as fair, reasonable, and adequate, the Court authorizes and directs implementation of all terms and provisions of the Settlement.

8. All Parties to this Action, including all Settlement Class Members, are bound by the Settlement as set forth in the Agreement and this Order.

9. The appointment of Plaintiff as the Class Representative is affirmed.

10. The appointment of Class Counsel is affirmed.

11. The Court affirms its findings that the Settlement Class meets the relevant requirements of Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.220(a) and (b)(2) and (3) for only the purposes of the Settlement in that: (1) the number of members of the Settlement Class is so numerous that joinder is impracticable; (2) there are questions of law and fact common to the members of the Settlement Class; (3) the claims of the Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the members of the Settlement Class; (4) the Plaintiff is an adequate representative for the Settlement Class, and has retained experienced and adequate Class Counsel; (5) the questions of law and fact common to the members of the Settlement Class predominate over any questions affecting any individual members of the Settlement Class; and (6) a class action is superior to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. In finding the Settlement fair, reasonable, and adequate, the Court has also considered that there were no objections to the Settlement, and no opt-outs, indicating an overwhelming positive reaction from the Settlement Class, and the opinion of competent counsel concerning such matters.

12. Therefore, the Court finally certifies the following Settlement Class:

All living individuals residing in the United States who were sent a notice of the Data Incident indicating their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

Excluded from the Settlement Class are (a) all persons who are directors, officers, and agents of Defendant, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliated companies; (b) governmental entities; (c) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge's immediate family, and Court staff; and (d) any Settlement Class Member who timely and validly opts-out of the Settlement.

13. Judgment shall be, and hereby is, entered dismissing the Action with prejudice, on the merits.

14. As of the Effective Date, and in exchange for the relief described in the Agreement, the Releasing Parties shall release the Released Parties from the Released Claims.

15. If, consistent with the plan of distribution set forth in the Settlement, there are any funds remaining in the Settlement Fund 240 days following the date Settlement Class Members are sent an email to select their form of payment, the residual funds shall be distributed to Electronic Privacy Information Center (<https://epic.org/cy-pres/>), as the cy pres recipient, which the Court approves.

16. Class Counsel is awarded $166,250.00 for attorneys' fees and $7,915.04 for costs. These payments shall be made out of the Settlement Fund in accordance with the Agreement. The Court evaluated settlement Class Counsel's request using a common fund analysis applying the factors in Kuhnlein v. Dep't of Revenue, 662 So. 2d 309 (Fla. 1995), and concludes that amount is fair and within the range of reason.

17. The Class Representative shall be awarded a Service Award in the amount of $2,000.00. The Service Award shall be payable out of the Settlement Fund in accordance with the Agreement.

18. Plaintiff and all Settlement Class Members and Releasing Parties, and persons purporting to act on their behalf, are permanently enjoined from commencing or prosecuting (either directly, representatively, or in any other capacity) any of the Released Claims against any of the Released Parties in any action or proceeding in any court, arbitration forum, or tribunal.
